

Clown Biography

Let's create your clown character! Developing a biography and backstory for your clown character will help you find the right clown type for you and help develop your character's personality. This will be important for helping you know how your clown would react to different situations. Answer the following questions and let's see where it leads!

What is your clown's name?

Where was your clown born?

When is your clown's birthday?

Where did your clown grow up?

What grade is your clown in at school?

Does your clown have brothers/sisters? Are they older or younger?

What is your clown's occupation (job)?

Hobbies?

Favorite book, sport, TV show, food, and color?

What would your clown consider to be a perfect day?

What famous people does your clown admire?

What are your clown's life goals? What are the obstacles to these goals?

Additional Clown Information: