

PURDUE EXTENSION BOONE COUNTY

4-H CAT WORKSHEETS

Grade 11-C

Name: _____

Club Name: _____

Date: _____

FIRST AID

1. What should you never forget when you're working with an injured cat?

2. _____ is a state of circulatory collapse that be the results of a severe accident, loss of blood, heart failure, toxins or neurological trauma.
3. Symptoms of show are _____

4. How do you control bleeding? _____
5. Never try to remove a _____ object from a wound.
6. True or false, apply burn cream or ointment to a cat with a burn before taking it to the vet. _____
7. Human medications can make a cat _____ if they lick them.
8. True or false, do NOT try to move a broken bone back together. _____
9. What are two other names for heatstroke? _____
10. What are the symptoms of heat stroke? _____

11. Stop heatstroke treatment when the body reaches _____
12. True or false, restrain a cat having a seizure. _____

Answers can be found in the Washington State University 4-H Cat Project Handbook – EM4900.