

PURDUE EXTENSION BOONE COUNTY

4-H CAT WORKSHEETS

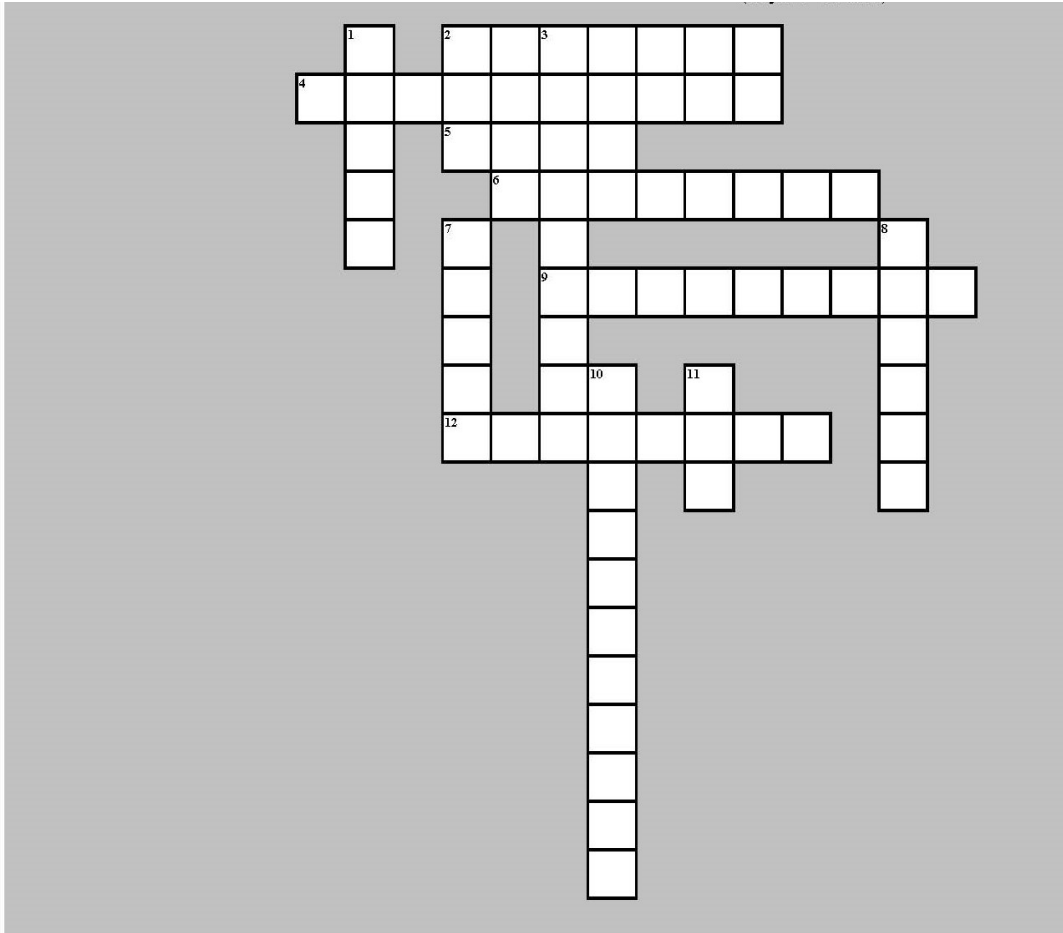

Grade 5-C

Name: _____

Club Name: _____

Date: _____

Across

- 2 Cats develop diarrhea when given cow's milk due to this compound, which is "milk-sugar."
- 4 A cat with more than five toes in front and four in the back.
- 5 Cats are the only animals that can do this.
- 6 A cat expresses pleasure or contentment by extending and retracting claws in pumping motion called _____.
- 9 Located on the muzzle, these are sometimes referred to as "whiskers."

- 12 Nearly two-thirds of a cat's life is spent doing this.

Down

- 1 The least important sense in a cat.
- 3 What are meat eating animals called?
- 7 Cat's have 230 of these in their body.
- 8 What type of hairs are particularly sensitive to touch when grasping prey with forelegs?
- 10 _____ claws allow cats to climb, fight and grip.
- 11 Cats can see in light _____ times dimmer than that in which humans can see.

Answers can be found in the Washington State University 4-H Cat Project Handbook – EM4900.