

GOAT AI CLINIC

PURDUE UNIVERSITY EXTENSION

Join Purdue University Extension for a hands-on goat AI clinic featuring David Carwell of B & D Genetics. Learn the biology and procedures behind artificial insemination of goats and how to have the most success in AI conceptions in your goats.

FEATURED SPEAKER:

David Carwell graduated from Arkansas State University in 2008 with his Bachelor's degree. That same year he was accepted into the master's program at Louisiana State University under the guidance of Dr. Robert Godke and Dr. Glen Gentry.

B & D Genetics was formed out of the passion David has for small ruminants and helping producers achieve their goals within their herd.
