

2023 FLOYD COUNTY, INDIANA

4-H LLAMA/ALPACA QUESTIONS FOR SENIORS (GRADES 9-12)

NAME: _____

1. What are the three areas of the llama/alpaca that are evaluated when considering “balance”? (pg 23)

_____,
_____, &

2. These three measurements in question #1 should be _____ to present a well-balanced llama/alpaca. (pg 23)

3. There are four desired behaviors of the proven herd guard llama. What are two of the four? (pg 33)

4. What parasite can the eggs be difficult to see but the worm segments can be seen in the llama’s/alpaca’s beans (poo)? (pg 42)

5. Why does coccidia commonly infect juveniles? (pg 43)

6. Llamas/Alpacas require five main minerals in their diet. What are they?

_____, _____,
_____, _____, &
_____ (pg 51)

7. What are the six areas of a cria that you can quickly examine to determine if it is premature? (pgs 66-67)

_____, _____,
_____, _____,
_____, & _____

8. What are the five common types of cuts for llamas? (pg 72-73)

_____, _____,
_____, _____,
& _____

What is your favorite cut? _____

9. How many fingers should you be able to slide between the chinstrap/throat latch and the llama's jaw? _____ It is recommended not to leave a halter on a llama/alpaca for more than _____. (pg 81-82)

10. What condition results from the loss of blood or the failure to restore lost blood; symptoms include paleness, rapid heart and respiratory rate, and exercise intolerance. (pg 91-95)