What is the 4-H Program?

What is 4-H?

4-H is a national youth development organization that inspires youth to build and strengthen life skills. The 4-H program exercises experiential learning, or “learning by doing” through a variety of hands-on projects in STEM, civic engagement, healthy living, and agriculture. 4-H strives to create an inclusive community among youth and adult volunteers by offering a variety of projects, camps, and programming events.

The regular 4-H program is for youth grades 3-12. Being a “ten-year member” is a high accomplishment for 4-Hers, meaning that they completed the program for ten consecutive years. Please see 4-H Membership for more guidelines in regards to youth who may academically advance or be retained a grade in school. While a big part of 4-H is exhibiting at the county fair, 4-H is so much more. Participants can attend trips, participate in club events, and compete in competitions. See 4-H Involvement and Opportunities to learn more what the program has to offer.

For younger youth in grades k-2, the Mini 4-H program is a great way to begin exploring 4-H and meeting new friends. While there are not as many opportunities for Mini 4-H participants, they can still participate in Mini 4-H Day (June) and exhibit at the Franklin County 4-H Fair. Please see Mini 4-H Program Expectations, Guidelines, and Rules for more information.

4-H Members have a better experience when they have parents/guardians, older siblings, grandparents, neighbors, or other adults who are able to encourage them throughout their learning experience. 4-H youth and their family are encouraged to attend club meetings and events together. Projects can be worked on around the kitchen table, in the backyard, or at a local community center. Parents can support their child by keeping track of important 4-H dates on the family calendar, keep their child organized, reinforce the importance of following directions, and above all, model the behavior they want their child to exhibit in public settings. It is important to note, the projects themselves are to be the work of the member, not that of a family member or anyone else. Engage as a whole family and learn together.

Purdue Extension

4-H is delivered by Cooperative Extension Services. In Indiana, Purdue University is the state’s Land Grant Institution that provides this service. Each of the 92 counties have an Extension Office that works to provide the community with research driven education programs. The Extension Office consists of Extension Educators, employed by Purdue University, and county office staff who may be full or part time. With the help of their office staff, the 4-H Youth Development Educator works hard to provide the county’s youth with educational programming. In addition, the educator works with schools and other community groups to provide more youth development opportunities. Franklin County also has an Agriculture and Natural Resources Educator to work with farmers, land owners, and homeowners. Other counties may also have a Community Development Educator and a Health and Human Sciences Educator. Each county has an Extension Board which consists of members of the community who advocate for and advertise Extension Programming.

Volunteers, 4-H Association, Junior Leaders, Booster Club

In addition to the Purdue Extension Office staff and educators, the 4-H program heavily relies on volunteers to fulfill responsibilities as club leaders, project committees, and fair leadership. All 4-H volunteers are required to go through an application and screening process, re-commit annually by signing the Adult Behavioral Expectations form, and complete the Operating Procedures for Programs Involving Minors training each year. If interested in becoming a 4-H volunteer, please contact the Extension Office for more information.

The Franklin County 4-H Association Board of Directors is a group of adult volunteers who work to oversee the program and county fair in July. These individuals are elected by the 4-H community and represent the members, volunteers, and families in order to create a positive program for youth.

Junior Leaders is a group of 4-H youth in grades 7-12 who volunteer in community events and at the fair. This is a project that can be signed up for during 4-H enrollment. Youth are required to serve as leaders for the 4-H program and complete a number of required services that are outlined under Junior Leaders project rules.

The Franklin County 4-H Booster Club is a group of families, organizations, businesses, and other groups who generously donate to the Franklin County 4-H Association. Through their donations, 4-H trips, educational programs, awards, fairgrounds maintenance, etc. are funded. Please see the appendix (pg 149) for a Booster Club Form, which is completed and submitted by April 1 annually.

Why 4-H?

4-H learning experiences are based on the principles and practices of positive youth development. Positive Youth Development (or PYD) views young people as vital resources with assets and potentials to be developed rather than problems to be managed. 4-H strives to provide youth with opportunities to enhance their interests, skills, and abilities. PYD encompasses five main tenets known as the 5 C's: competence, confidence, connection, character, and caring. When youth are able to exercise the 5 C's, they are able to see themselves as positive contributors to their communities. The various types of involvement in 4-H (for example, club involvement, project completion, and attending camps and workshops) all allow youth to discover their potential.

Key to the 4-H Program is the development of life skills that help participants lead productive and satisfying lives. The program focuses on fostering skills that are healthy and productive for both youth and their communities. Helping youth meet their basic needs and acquire the competencies important to their immediate and future success is the role of the youth development professional.

In a recent survey, 4-H members in their last year of participation were asked to rate the influence that Indiana 4-H had on their development of 35 important life skills. Sometimes referred to as "soft skills," these are the skills that researchers believe help to bridge academic achievement with post-secondary and workplace experiences, thus enhancing an individual's chances of moving successfully into adulthood.

The life skills assessed by survey respondents came from the Targeting Life Skills Model developed by Patricia Hendricks of the Iowa 4-H Program. With this model, skills that are needed for the positive growth and development of a young person are aligned with the four components of the 4-H pledge: head, heart, hands, and health. The model is utilized by 4-H professionals and volunteers as a framework to organize the delivery of 4-H experiences that teach the life skills identified in the model.

How to Get Involved in Franklin County 4-H

1. The first step to joining 4-H would be to review this hand book. Understand what is required to successfully complete a year in the 4-H program, how to enroll in 4-H, how to sign up for county fair exhibits, what the rules are for exhibits, etc.
2. Enroll in 4-H. The 4-H year runs from October 1-September 30. Enrollment is encouraged between October 1-January 15. Youth may enroll in 4-H at any time during the year. However, to participate in most events, including the county fair, they must be enrolled by January 15 of the current year's fair.
3. Do not hesitate to ask questions or seek information if questions or confusion arise. The Youth Educator, the Extension Office Staff, club leaders, project leaders, and 4-H volunteers are all ready to help the 4-H youth and their family.

Dates, Schedules, and Need to Knows

What You Need to Know Now

Review all project rules and guidelines. 4-H enrollment begins October 1 and ends January 15. Keep in mind that all animal data must be entered on 4-H Online by May 15. Be aware of all health and identification requirements as well. Remember that food projects require recipe cards, arts projects require craft cards, some projects require skills cards, etc. Posters should be covered with a plastic sleeve. Dogs cannot enter the fairground unless they have their vaccine paper turned into the office. All of these requirements can be found in this handbook. Please read thoroughly and contact the office with questions. Some important dates and deadlines can be found below. The Extension Office will also send out reminders, newsletters, and updates on what is going on in the 4-H program. It is important to keep an eye on your email to ensure that you do not miss any deadlines (i.e. animal data, Fair Entry, etc.).

October

- October 1 - 4-H Enrollment opens via 4-H Online
 - Be sure to sign up for all projects that you intend to exhibit at the county fair. Through this online enrollment process, you will sign waivers and pay a $25 program fee (free for Mini 4-H). Enrollment is not complete until all fees have been paid and waivers have been completed. Volunteers must re enroll each year in 4-H Online as well.

November

December

January

- January 15 - 4-H Enrollment closes via 4-H Online

February

- Pick up paperwork from the office
 - 4-H members will collect their paperwork from the Extension Office. This includes project manuals, the new handbook, and your Green Folder (My Record of Achievement, Points System, and Project Record sheets, and additional information). Any paperwork that is not picked up from the office will be given to the 4-H member's club leader.

March

- First 4-H Club meeting
 - Most 4-H clubs will begin meeting early in the year. Your 4-H Club (that you signed up for during enrollment) leader will contact you regarding when and where meetings will take place. Some clubs- shooting sports, dog, horse and pony, etc.- may meet more often throughout the year because these projects require more time and commitment.

April

- Livestock weigh in and identification day
 - Most livestock projects require market animals to attend a weigh in and identification event at the fairgrounds. Refer to the Animal Project Expectations, Guidelines, and Rules section for specific requirements. Be on the lookout for information regarding this event. This does not pertain to Mini 4-H members exhibiting animals.

May

- May 15 - deadline to enter animal data via 4-H Online
 - All animal data (besides poultry) must be entered in 4-H Online by May 15, no exceptions. This does not pertain to Mini 4-H members exhibiting animals.
- May 15 - deadline to sign up for the 4-H Fair Queen Pageant

June

- Mini 4-H Day, 4-H Camp, Round Up, Academy, Jr. Leader Conference, Etc.
 - June is full of 4-H trips and camps. Information regarding registration will be sent to eligible 4-H members in advance, so be sure to sign up by the deadline.
- Poultry Blood Testing
 - Poultry (excluding waterfowl) that does not originate from an NPIP certified flock will need to be blood tested. This event will take place at the fairgrounds. This ensures they are healthy and free from certain diseases. This does not pertain to Mini 4-H members exhibiting poultry.
- Rabbit Tattooing
 - Rabbit members will need to attend a tattooing and identification day if they have market rabbits and/or breeding rabbits that need tattooed. This does not pertain to Mini 4-H members exhibiting rabbits.
- Fair Entry
 - In order to participate at the county fair, exhibitors must complete Fair Entry, an online platform that compiles all exhibits at the county fair for record keeping and results entry. It is the responsibility of the 4-Her to enter all exhibits, including each class for animal projects, that they plan to participate in at the fair. Fair Entry will be open only for a limited period of time. Be on the lookout for directions from the Extension Office.
- Indiana 4-H Quality Livestock Care Training
 - All livestock exhibitors (excluding dogs and horses) must complete quality livestock care training prior to Sunday check in of fair week. Training will be provided throughout the spring. The Extension Office will provide more information. This does not pertain to Mini 4-H members exhibiting animals.

July

- Fair week
 - Review the handbook to ensure all project exhibits meet the guidelines. Review the schedule to know when and where to be during Fair week.
- Record keeping
 - At the conclusion of the fair, exhibitors should complete the My Record of Achievement, Points Sheet, and Project Record Sheet. These, along with your Green Folder, need to be returned to the Extension Office by September 1. This does not pertain to Mini 4-H members.
- Indiana State Fair
 - If your 4-H static project advances to the Indiana State Fair, the project needs to be brought to the Extension Office by the provided date. The office will let you know when projects can be picked up after the fair. Be sure to visit and/or participate at the Indiana State Fair, which typically runs three weeks at the end of July/beginning of August.

August

September

- 4-H Recognition Banquet
 - At the end of the 4-H program year (September), the 4-H Association hosts a banquet to recognize the achievements of the 4-H members and volunteers.

Franklin County 4-H Program Expectations and Guidelines

Indiana 4-H Program Philosophy and Expectations

The Indiana 4-H Youth Development program serves the youth of Indiana by providing a strong educational youth development program. This program delivers educational experiences in a variety of settings. Caring, capable and contributing adults assist in the 4-H program as role models for youth. The rich heritage of the 4-H Program is one to be valued and passed along to future generations.

The Indiana 4-H Youth Policies and Procedures Handbook includes certain standards and guidelines to assure that 4-H is a positive youth development program. County 4-H policy is guided by the county governing board (i.e., 4-H Association Board of Directors) as provided by the County Extension Board. Legal authority for the 4-H Program rests with the Director of the Cooperative Extension Service at Purdue University. No county 4-H policy may conflict with state 4-H policy or with federal guidelines and requirements. Deadlines for county and state participation should be carefully constructed so as to encourage rather than to discourage participation. Such deadlines should be well published. Members not complying with established and published dates and deadlines for exhibition may be denied the opportunity to exhibit.

It is the policy of 4-H to be an inclusive organization. No county policy or practice should be used to arbitrarily exclude youth from either membership or participation. Youth should participate in 4-H Youth Development opportunities at levels and times that best suit the youth's development. It is the policy of the Purdue University Cooperative Extension Service that all persons have equal opportunity and access to its educational programs, services, activities, and facilities without regard to race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin or ancestry, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, disability or status as a veteran. Purdue University is an Affirmative Action institution.

4-H Mission

The Indiana 4-H Youth Development mission is to provide real-life educational opportunities that develop young people who positively impact their community and world.

4-H Vision

Indiana 4-H Youth Development strives to be the premier, community-based program empowering young people to reach their full potential.

Equal Opportunities for 4-Hers

Opportunities in the 4-H program are available to all Indiana youth as defined regardless of race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin or ancestry, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation or disability. Married young men and women of 4-H age may participate in any of the 4-H projects and activities. However, married persons must participate by the same terms and conditions and/or guidelines as unmarried participants. Membership in 4-H is gained by annually enrolling through a Purdue University Cooperative Extension Service Office located in each of Indiana's 92 counties.

4-H Membership

Youth may become 4-H members when they enter the third grade and may continue their membership through the completion of grade 12. Each individual may continue membership for a maximum of ten (10) consecutive years. Exceptions:

- (1) Youth who enroll in grade three and are advanced academically (thus graduating early) may continue for a total of 10 years ONLY if the enrollment occurs in consecutive years.
- (2) Those youth who are academically advanced and “skip” 3rd grade, may begin the program as a 4th grader and may continue for a total of 10 years ONLY if the enrollment occurs in consecutive years.
- (3) Those youth who enroll in grade three and are retained a grade in school may continue to progress through the 4-H Program by adding subsequent years of participation, but MAY NOT exceed 10 years of participation. For example, if a member is retained one year in school (public, private, or home), their final year of 4-H membership would conclude the summer following their junior year of high school.
- (4) Those youth who entered the program in 3rd grade and for one reason or another leave formal education prior to the completion of 12th grade may continue for a total of 10 years ONLY if the enrollment occurs in consecutive years.

NOTE: 10 years of membership in the 4-H Youth Development Program is an opportunity --- not an entitlement. Those youth who do not enroll as 3rd grade students or meet the exceptions above, conclude their involvement with the program during the summer immediately following the completion of their senior year in high school.

4-H Grade

An individual's 4-H grade is determined by the school grade in which he or she is classified at the time of year he or she enrolls in 4-H. A member does not advance in 4-H grade until he or she enrolls in 4-H for the subsequent year. Each member should enroll in the division of a project/subject that would best suit his/her interest and potential for personal growth and would enhance their family involvement.

4-H Enrollment

The Indiana 4-H Youth Development program year is October 1 to September 30 annually. Enrollment is an annual process attained by completing individual 4-H enrollment via the 4-H Online enrollment process. Statewide 4-H Online enrollment occurs annually October 1 through January 15.

Through the enrollment process, members/parents/guardians will sign the following statements: Liability Release Statement, Parent/Legal Guardian Statement, and Member Statement. An optional Photo Policy Statement will also be available to sign. These statements will be available on 4-H Online during the enrollment process. Please see a guide on how to enroll in 4-H Online in the appendix (returning youth- pg 129, new youth - pg 135).

Contact the Franklin County Extension Office if additional information or help is needed to enroll. Mini 4-H (grades K-2) enrollment is free. The program fee is an annual $25 per member ($15 for state fee and $10 per member for county fee) with a maximum per immediate family of $75. The fees are payable online via credit card or at the Extension Office via check or cash. An individual child's 4-H enrollment will be considered complete once the required signatures/permissions have been submitted and respective fees have been paid. Any family with a hardship is encouraged to contact the Extension Office for assistance.

Communication

The Extension Office will utilize email as the primary communication service to all involved in the 4-H program. The office will also mail important newsletters and updates and may call 4-H families in the case that email or mail is not sufficient. It is the responsibility of the 4-H family to contact the office if they cannot access email. The email, phone number, and address entered on 4-H Online will be used as the contact. It is the responsibility of the 4-H family to update this if it changes throughout the 4-H year.

Residence

Indiana youth typically enroll in 4-H Youth Development programs in the county or state in which they reside. However, individuals living in one county may join 4-H in another county. There may be educational or social reasons for an individual joining 4-H in a different county than that of their primary residence. During a single program year, a 4-H member enrolled in a given project is expected to enroll and exhibit that project only in one county of enrollment.

In the event that a project is not offered in the county of primary 4-H enrollment, a 4-H member may enroll in that specific project in a different county. Approval of this special exception rests with the 4-H Extension Educator. Participation in 4-H related activities and events (i.e., judging, share-the-fun, auction) must be in the county of primary 4-H enrollment.

The above policy is not intended to provide an escape mechanism for 4-H members and families who are unwilling to follow the terms and/or conditions in their current county of 4-H membership. Decisions regarding 4-H membership in a non-resident county (a county you do not live in), rest with the 4-H Extension Educator in the receiving county.

Note: In a statement from our federal partner in Washington, D.C., the following statement appears: "Anytime there are procedures for exclusion of individuals from events which use the 4-H name, there are potential challenges to enforcement of the exclusions. The challenges have a substantial potential to prevail and they frequently result in negative publicity for the organization. Therefore, before choosing a policy of exclusion, it is wise to evaluate the exclusion being considered, to be sure there is an overwhelming educationally-based need for the exclusion".

Extension employees and volunteers are obligated to eliminate (and should not create) any practices that limit, deprive, or tend to deprive any youth of opportunities for membership and/or participation in the Indiana 4-H program.

Liability and Safety

Every effort will be made to ensure the safety of all persons and exhibits. However, the Franklin County 4-H Association, Purdue Extension Staff, and authorized individuals will not be responsible for fire, theft, loss, or damage incurred during or after the 4-H fair.

In the case that a 4-H member, volunteer, or spectator who is participating in or attending an approved CES event/activity receives an injury which requires medical or dental attention, they are asked to complete an Accident/Incident Report Form, which can be provided by the Purdue Extension Office. As part of the State 4-H Program Fee, Purdue University has purchased a Group Activities Master Accident Policy through American Income Life Insurance Company for all 4-H members and approved volunteers who have completed the enrollment process. If an incident occurs at an adult supervised 4-H activity, it may be covered through Purdue's policy. Contact the Extension Office for more information or to submit a claim.

Behavior Criteria for 4-H Events and Activities

To 4-H members, volunteers, parents and the public: When attending, participating or acting on behalf of the 4-H program, all persons are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with accepted standards of social behavior, to respect rights of others, and to refrain from any conduct which may be injurious to the 4-H program. The following actions constitute misconduct for which persons may be subject to disciplinary consequences and/or dismissal from the program:

- (a) Dishonesty in connection with any 4-H activity by cheating or knowingly furnishing false information.
- (b) Alteration or unauthorized use of 4-H records.
- (c) Obstruction or disruption of any 4-H activity or aiding and encouraging other persons to engage in such conduct.
- (d) Failure to comply or aiding or encouraging other persons not to comply with specific terms and conditions of a given project, contest, or activity.
- (e) Failure to comply with directions of 4-H officials acting in the proper performance of their duties.
- (f) Inhumane treatment of 4-H animal projects.

There are many opportunities for 4-H members, volunteers, parents and the public to participate in 4-H events and activities. When involved in such experiences, members, volunteers, parents and the public are expected to follow all rules and regulations as outlined by those responsible for the specific program or activity. In all such 4-H activities, the following constitute a violation of behavioral expectations:

1. Possession or use of firecrackers, gun powder, firearms, chemicals or other materials that can be used to create an explosive mixture.
2. Misuse of fire equipment or sounding a false fire alarm.
3. Having a guest of a different gender in your sleeping quarters, or inappropriate sexual behavior.
4. Physical or verbal abuse of any person or conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person.
5. Theft of or malicious damage to property.
6. Possession, use, or distribution of alcohol, illegal drugs, tobacco and tobacco-like products, electronic smoking devices (including, but not limited to, e-cigs, vapes, juuls), or other dangerous substances.
7. Inappropriate displays of affection towards another person(s).
8. Distribution, misuse, or abuse of over-the-counter, homeopathic (including supplements and vitamins), or prescription medications.
9. Inappropriate clothing or lack of clothing during the event or activity.
10. Lewd, indecent, or obscene conduct or language.
11. Unauthorized entry, use or occupancy of any facility.
12. Any conduct which threatens or interferes with maintenance of appropriate order and discipline or invades the rights of others.
13. Unwillingness to follow appropriate health and safety procedures.
14. Reckless or inappropriate behavior.

When violations occur at out-of-county, district, area, state and/or national 4-H events, the following procedures will be followed.

- (a) The parents/legal guardians may be contacted to arrange transportation home for the violator(s) and
- (b) The local extension educator may be notified.

Green Folders

Each 4-H member will receive a green folder with a Franklin County Points Sheet, a My Record of Achievement sheet, and a Project Record Sheet. 4-Hers should complete all three sheets as a record of what they have achieved throughout the year. The green folder and sheets can be turned in at project pick up on the Saturday following the county fair or to the Extension Office by September 1. By keeping accurate records, 4-Hers will have a running total of points they earn through 4-H activities. One incentive for this is to earn a free trip to Chicago during high school depending on the number of cumulative points. These documents can be found in the appendix (pg 151, 152, 153). Please note that Mini 4-H members do not need to complete any record sheets or turn in a Green Folder.

Exhibition

Exhibition of 4-H projects/subjects in local, county, or state exhibits/fairs, in person or virtually, is voluntary on the part of the exhibitor. The exhibition of 4-H projects/subjects provides 4-H members an opportunity to display their 4-H projects/subjects, enter into competition, and participate in an educational/social environment with peers. With exhibition also comes the responsibility for abiding by all the terms and conditions pertaining to the respective 4-H project.

Completion

The completion of a 4-H experience may include a variety of options and must not be misinterpreted solely as exhibition of a project at a local, county, or state fair. There are a number of ways that a young person may participate in the 4-H Youth Development Program in addition to the club-based option. Participating in these 4-H opportunities enable the youth to build skills that will serve them well throughout their adult lives.

Some of these participation options do not include the preparation of a specific exhibit by an individual that would be on display at a fair or similar event. In some cases, the youths' actual participation may be the final product that results in their completion of a year of 4-H. Some examples of this participation include working as a team to develop a robot for a workshop or challenge; completing a Spark Club experience; participating in State 4-H Band or Chorus; taking part in a science training or experiment; participating in an after school 4-H experience; etc.

4-H members are considered complete in their 4-H educational experience for the year when they have (1) completed the 4-H member enrollment process prior to the established and published date for enrolling; and (2) had an officially recognized 4-H volunteer/Extension Educator verify the existence of the completed project/subject or the member's participation in a 4-H educational experience – this could be in the form of an exhibit, poster, report, presentation, etc. Or, a member may choose to submit a completed record sheet in lieu of an exhibit to complete the club- or fair-based 4-H project/subject. The 4-H record sheet will be based on printed or web-based educational materials (used by Indiana 4-H Youth Development) and submitted prior to the established and published date.

Though exhibiting in local, county, and state exhibits/fairs is not required for project completion, as it does not necessarily relate directly to content and skills learned in the development of the 4-H project, project exhibition is encouraged as a continuation of the educational experience.

Extension employees and volunteers are obligated to eliminate (and should not create) any practices that limit, deprive, or tend to deprive any youth of opportunities for membership and/or participation in the Indiana 4-H program.

Per state and federal guidelines, volunteers and Extension Educators may not require youth to attend 4-H club meetings in order to complete 4-H or exhibit their work.

Grievance/Appeal Guidelines for County 4-H Program Issues

The grievance procedures outlined in this document are utilized as part of an internal process of the Indiana 4-H Youth Development program when grievances of 4-H members, their parents/guardians, or 4-H volunteers cannot be resolved via reasonable conversation. This policy affords the opportunity in those unique situations to allow voice or opinion to be heard when there is a dispute regarding 4-H participation, activities or programs. This is not a mechanism for complaints against individual 4-H members (or their families), 4-H volunteers, judging officials for competitive events, or Purdue Extension staff. All resulting decisions will be made in accordance with the Indiana 4-H Program's stated mission to be an inclusive organization designed to encourage and maximize youth participation. The rights of the individual filing the grievance are limited to those provided by Indiana 4-H Program policy.

Purdue University, as the Land Grant University in Indiana, is charged (by the United States Department of Agriculture) with implementing the 4-H Program in communities across the State of Indiana. Purdue Extension Educators in each Indiana county represent the university in local communities and have the responsibility of assuring all 4-H volunteers meet basic university criteria as they serve as representatives of the university. Purdue Extension Educators additionally provide oversight to 4-H volunteers including the assurance that Indiana 4-H Policies and Procedures are appropriately implemented in 4-H Program delivery.

Individual county 4-H policies and procedures should be created and reviewed to assure they do not contradict established statewide 4-H policies and procedures. If a contradiction is discovered during the grievance process, Indiana 4-H Program policy shall be followed in determining the grievance outcome.

1. Grievances are made by completing the Indiana 4-H Grievance/Appeal form with the burden of proof being the responsibility of the individual filing the grievance. The completed grievance/appeal form and supporting documentation shall be presented to the president of the 4-H policy-making body (e.g., 4-H Association Board of Directors) or the Purdue Extension Educator who works with the 4-H Program. (NOTE: concerns regarding staff, volunteers, members, or other individuals are not issues for which a grievance may be filed. 4-H volunteers are assigned by the 4-H Extension Educator. Concerns regarding 4-H volunteers, members, or other individuals should be addressed directly with the Purdue 4-H Extension Educator.)

2. Grievances pertaining to 4-H activities, programs or projects shall be filed within 14 days of an incident or occurrence. Grievances pertaining to county fair related issues are often time-sensitive and must be filed within 24 hours of the incident.

3. The grievance process occurs in the county where the issue or concern arises and offers two opportunities for a concern to be heard and reviewed.

A. The grievance is initially heard by an unbiased, representative grievance sub-committee of approved 4-H Volunteers. It is the Purdue Extension Educator assigned to 4-H Programming who shall annually work with the chair of the county 4-H Association Board of Directors to determine this committee's membership to include a combination of 3-6 of the following individuals: one representative of the 4-H Association Board of Directors; two 4-H volunteers serving as a 4-H club organizational leader; one member of the County Extension Board; one 4-H volunteer knowledgeable in the subject matter (project) of concern (this individual will vary dependent on the issue raised with the grievance); one youth representative; and up to three community leaders. The Purdue Extension Educator assigned to 4-H shall convene the group.

B. The person filing the grievance may appeal the decision of the 4-H Grievance Committee to the State 4-H Program Leader or designee. The Program Leader or designee will review the facts in evidence and render a decision. This is the second and final level in the appeal process.

The intent of a two level process is to assure different individuals have the opportunity to hear and act on the grievance. ALL individuals involved at any level of the grievance procedure are reminded of the importance of keeping discussions regarding grievances confidential.

To maintain the confidentiality of the parties involved, the grievance hearings at each level will be closed to the public. Only the individuals who have filed the grievance, the members of the grievance committee, and the Purdue Extension Educators will be present during each level of the grievance process, The grievance process is internal to the Indiana 4-H Youth Development Program and meetings of the grievance committees are not subject to Indiana's Open Door Policy.

The Purdue Extension Educator assigned to work with the 4-H Program has the obligation to inform all parties that there is a grievance procedure if there are disagreements with policies.

The practice of charging fees from those filing grievances shall be eliminated and all counties will utilize the Indiana 4-H Grievance/Appeal Form as part of the grievance process.

The Grievance Form can be requested from the Purdue Extension Office.

Franklin County 4-H Program Involvement and Opportunities

Franklin County 4-H Clubs

4-H participants are encouraged to join a 4-H Club in order to learn about opportunities in the program as well as to meet other 4-Hers and volunteers and get involved in the community. Clubs are located throughout the county. Please sign up for a club during online enrollment via 4-H Online. 4-Hers can sign up for multiple clubs, but please select one "Primary Club." Two types of clubs exist in Franklin County - Community Clubs and Organized Subject Matter (Project) Clubs.

4-H Community Clubs

These groups include at least five members from at least three families ranging in grades from 3 to 12. The youth usually live in a geographic area they call their community or neighborhood. The club is led by one or more approved adult volunteer leaders. Youth enroll in subject matter areas of interest (projects), participate in 9-12 meetings during the year, select youth officers, carry out club responsibilities, participate in service to the community, and receive recognition for their work. Club meetings typically are held once a month in a location such as a school, community center, church, or other public meeting space. Project evaluation is often carried out during the county fair or at the end of the 4-H Youth Development Program year. The club often uses its meetings to develop group process skills, leadership ability, and communication skills.

Organized Subject Matter (Project) Clubs

These groups are organized around a specific subject matter (project) area (e.g. robotics, junior leaders, shooting sports, rabbits, dairy goats, tractor, horse and pony, dogs, electricity, etc.). The youth and adult volunteers use club meetings to learn together about the subject around which they have organized. They have lessons, participate in field trips, and teach each other about related concepts. They often prepare an exhibit for a county fair. They develop leadership skills (club officers) and group process skills by working together and completing projects that are meaningful to each other or their community.

Franklin County 4-H Fair

Maybe one of the most well known opportunities of the 4-H program is the county fair. Members have the opportunity to learn more about a subject matter that they choose to study through completing hands-on activities. In 4-H, we refer to these as projects. In order to enroll in a project, members must sign up for them at the time of enrolling in 4-H. Each project has a set of guidelines that helps them meet the project requirements. Adult volunteers and staff who are knowledgeable on that particular subject often host workshops to allow the youth to learn about that topic in a social environment. Projects range from sewing to swine to tractor driving. Please visit the Animal Project Expectations, Guidelines, and Rules and Static Project Expectations, Guidelines, and Rules sections of this handbook for specific rules in regards to projects.

Indiana State Fair

Oftentimes for static projects, the 4-Her will have the opportunity to advance from the county level to the state level. However, for some projects, including animal projects, beekeeping, garden, herbs, and potatoes, exhibitors can sign up for the state fair regardless of how they place at the county level. Please visit the project rules, the Indiana State Fair website/guidelines, or contact the Extension Office for more information on how to advance/sign up for the state fair.

SPARK Clubs

SPARKS Clubs are open to youth grades 3-12 to “spark” new interest in the Indiana 4-H program. SPARK Clubs are special interest groups designed to capture the attention of youth with single focus, “out of the box” interests that are likely different from state-recognized 4-H projects. These clubs are led by volunteers bringing their subject mastery to the club. SPARK Clubs include six hours of instructional time that can occur in one day or over a length of time. Most SPARK Clubs end their program with a culminating event or activity. Contact the Extension Office if you are an approved volunteer and interested in hosting a SPARK Club.

After School and Weekend Programs

Local Purdue Extension 4-H Educators work with volunteers and leaders in the community in order to offer hands-on educational 4-H experiences for youth during the after school hours. Oftentimes, these experiences take place within a preexisting afterschool program, but are certainly not limited to that. These groups can be formed wherever young people are likely to gather. This may be a school, a community building, a public library, a church, or some other after-school gathering spot. This approach allows youth who need focused and directed activity (non formal learning and recreation) to join together at a time when they are available. These youth can achieve together in productive and positive ways. An adult volunteer or staff member helps to oversee and direct the youth in their activities.

These groups may meet for several weeks while the young people and the adults pursue a meaningful 4-H project or activity. The focus of the group may range from career exploration to community service or discussions about critical issues facing youth. It is also possible that these youth may then join in other 4-H activities and gain additional benefits. If your child is enrolled in an afterschool program, or you coordinate an afterschool program, contact your local Purdue Extension 4-H Youth Development Educator to see how you can integrate 4-H into your program.

School Enrichment Programs

Local Purdue Extension 4-H Youth Development Educators and volunteers have access to experiential learning resources designed to supplement a specific learning topic in a school based setting. Whether it is personal finance, living a healthy lifestyle, or STEM related topics, we have research-based curriculum that can help enhance the student’s experience.

Franklin County 4-H Queen Pageant

The Franklin County 4-H Queen Pageant is a great opportunity for young adults to practice leadership and represent their community in a positive and well mannered way.

The Franklin County 4-H Queen Contest follows the terms and conditions of the Indiana State Fair Queen Contest. This event is awarded based on a combination of factors related to personal appearance, poise, and talent, not on a 4-H member’s participation or record of achievement. This event does not discriminate against any participant based upon race, color, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, parental status or marital status.

The queen contest is open to current and former Franklin County 4-H members who have been members of 4-H for at least three years. Contestants must be at least 18 years old but have not yet reached their 22nd birthday as of June 1 of the contest year. Each contestant must be an Indiana resident, a U.S. citizen, and represent their home county

(county of legal residency). One of the contestant's parents or legal guardians must also be an Indiana resident. The only exception- the contestant may reside in an adjoining Indiana county if the majority of their activities are in the county in which they entered the contest. Each contestant must be employable by the State of Indiana. Any contestant who has competed or participated in a prior Indiana State Fair Queen Pageant cannot compete or participate again.

4-H members interested in participating in the 4-H Fair Queen Pageant should enroll in the 4-H Queen Pageant project in 4-H Online by May 15.

Contestants must attend two of the three preparation meetings and must attend the rehearsal at the high school. These dates will be provided in the spring of the contest year. The Franklin County contest takes place in the Lew Wallace Auditorium at Franklin County High School on the last Sunday in June at 6:30 pm.

The queen court will attend and work at events at the Franklin County 4-H Fair. After the contest, a sign up sheet will be created to ensure members of the queen court are present at all 4-H Fair events. Responsibilities during these events may be distributing awards, saying the Pledge of Allegiance and 4-H Pledge, making announcements, and interacting with the community.

After the contest, the queen committee will discuss proper attire and coordinate a dress code for the week of the fair. The queen court must follow all 4-H behavioral expectations. The community views the queen court as representatives of Franklin County 4-H, and younger youth look up to them as role models.

The queen court may be asked to attend parades and social events throughout the year to promote 4-H and Franklin County. They are also asked to attend the following year's pageant preparation meeting and contest to help future contestants and to crown the new queen and court.

The queen will represent Franklin County in the State Fair Queen Pageant in January.

4-H Achievement Trip

Every other year, a group of Franklin County 4-Hers has the opportunity to attend an all-inclusive trip to Chicago for a few days, sponsored by the Booster Club and 4-H Association. Participants explore the city, visit top attractions, and enjoy local, authentic food. Participants are chosen based on their cumulative points gained over their 4-H career. Therefore, members are encouraged to complete the Points System sheet and return it to the office by September 1.

Additionally, one senior is awarded with the Overall 4-H Achievement Award. This recipient has accumulated the most points over their ten year 4-H career. These points are calculated from the Points Systems sheet due by September 1.

Scholarships are awarded to recognize youth participating in Indiana's 4-H Youth Development Program on their achievements and life skill development resulting from their participation in a variety of 4-H experiences. For more information on how to apply for these scholarships, visit the state website at <https://extension.purdue.edu/4-H/get-involved/scholarships.html>.

4-H Volunteer Information

The 4-H Youth Development Program relies heavily on volunteers, especially to host a successful county fair. Opportunities vary from club leader to livestock committee member to assisting at static project judging. Volunteers may also lead workshops and special interest programs. Contact the Extension Office for more information on how to become an approved volunteer for the Franklin County 4-H Program. All volunteers must complete a volunteer application and screening process and participate in training provided by the 4-H Educator. Individuals annually reaffirm their commitment to serving as 4-H Volunteers. Volunteers must also complete enrollment each year through 4-H Online. A guide can be found in the appendix (pg 142).

Volunteers can find additional support, resources, and training opportunities on the state website at <https://extension.purdue.edu/4-H/volunteer/index.html>.

Franklin County 4-H Fair Expectations and Guidelines

Animal Identification

Animal data must be entered on 4-H Online by May 15.

Fair Entry

4-Hers will enroll for 4-H via 4-H Online between October 1 and January 15. Then, in mid June (be on the lookout for more information as the time gets closer), 4-Hers will have access to Fair Entry where they will be required to enter what specific exhibits they will bring to the Franklin County 4-H Fair. Fair Entry is a system that organizes all exhibits for the fair. Results and placings will be kept track of using this system, so it is important for all 4-Hers to enter their exhibit information before the deadline. This includes both animal and static project exhibits. For animal exhibits, 4-Hers must enter each class they plan to exhibit in at the fair. Failure to enter exhibits on Fair Entry could result in failure to participate at the fair.

For clarification, 4-H Online is the first step to enroll in 4-H (completed October - January) and Fair Entry is the second step to enter exhibits/animal classes that will be brought to the fair (mid June). A guide to Fair Entry can be found in the appendix (pg 146). If you need assistance, please contact the Extension Office ahead of time.

Judging

All judging for the Franklin County 4-H Fair will take place at the Franklin County 4-H Fairgrounds. Projects must be entered/picked up and/or exhibited at the specified date, time, and location. Please see the Dates, Schedules, and Need to Know section for a full list of these dates, times, and locations. Entries submitted late may be docked a ribbon placing or may be ineligible for exhibit.

Some projects (i.e. public speaking, pets, tractor driving, dogs, rabbits, etc.) require exhibitors to be present for judging. However, other projects (i.e. woodworking, basketry, gardening, etc.) do not require exhibitors to be present for judging. Please see specific project rules for more information. It is to the 4-Her's advantage to be present for judging. Talking with the judge allows the 4-H member to practice their communication skills and receive valuable feedback on their project.

During judging, parents/guardians and other friends and family will be asked to not interfere with the process. Static project buildings will be closed during judging to only allow approved volunteers and 4-Hers to be present. If assistance is required for a 4-Her to exhibit, please contact the Extension Office to make accommodations ahead of time. Other spectators may wait outside. For animal projects, please see Animal Project Expectations, Guidelines, and Rules for more information.

4-H is a learning process and not everyone will be pleased with how their exhibit places at the fair. Remember that the ribbon is just the result of one person's opinion on one particular day of the year. This ribbon does not determine the 4-Her's knowledge, skillset, or creativity. Judges are selected based on their previous knowledge and background in the project area as well as their experience with the 4-H Youth Development Program.

Direct criticism or interference with any Extension Personnel, project judge, project chairperson, 4-H Association Director, livestock show management, other breeders, other exhibitors, breed representatives, show officials or auction personnel, before, during or after the competition event or livestock auction is prohibited. In the furtherance of their official duties, all judges, fair and livestock show management, auction personnel or other show officials will be treated with courtesy, cooperation and respect and no person shall direct abuse or threatening conduct towards them. Any such action by an exhibitor, his or her family, or any other person may result in disciplinary action by the 4-H Association and could result in a minimum one-year suspension from the Franklin County 4-H Fair.

Project Manuals

Several 4-H projects have manuals that may be used for additional information or guidance in completing the project. These manuals are available at the Extension Office and can be picked up with your Green Folder. The office will contact you when project manuals and Green Folders are ready for pick up.

Premium Money

Through generous donations from community members, 4-Hers who exhibit at the Franklin County 4-H Fair have the opportunity to earn premium money. This rate is typically $4 per project that is completed. In order to earn premium money, 4-Hers must turn in their green folder along with their Franklin County Point System, My Record of Achievement, and Project Record sheets to the Extension Office by September 1. Mini 4-H members are not eligible for Premium Money.

Thank You Cards

Besides the $25 program fee, the majority of the Franklin County 4-H Program relies on community support to make it a success. At the conclusion of the fair, it is advised that participants write thank you cards to sponsors of any awards they received, buyers who purchased their animals in the livestock auction, premium money donors, and any other volunteers who played a large role in the success of the fair. If an exhibitor is unsure of addresses, please contact the Extension Office.

Franklin County Mini 4-H Program Expectations, Guidelines, and Rules

Mini 4-H Overview

Mini 4-H is a program designed to encourage positive development of children, Kindergarten through second grade. The goal of Mini 4-H is to help young children explore friendships outside the family, explore the way in which things work, practice both small and large muscle control, and think about the ways people work together on projects.

Mini 4-Hers can participate in Mini 4-H Day, which is held in June. Participants will be sent out more information about this event. It is a fun morning where participants can meet new people, play games, and get excited for 4-H. Participants can also exhibit Mini 4-H projects at the fair. Please see more information below.

Mini 4-H exhibitors are expected to enroll in 4-H Online by January 15 and follow all rules put forth by the Franklin County 4-H Program, including behavior expectations. Please refer to the Franklin County 4-H Program Expectations and Guidelines section in this handbook for all guidelines. Refer to the Dates, Schedules, and Need to Know section for dates.

Mini 4-H Non-Competitive Policy

The non-competitive learning environment for Mini 4-H includes:

1. Planned learning activities in which children are invited to be active and explore materials and ideas without the pressure of completing a specific product or exhibit.
2. Low adult/leader to child ratio that allows time for adults/leaders to provide individual, positive encouragement and assistance.
3. Simple, interesting activities that are fun.
4. Encouragement of children to participate in a group activity by sharing and or displaying their activity projects.
5. Rewards that are identical and/or ribbons of the same color for everyone.
6. Do not judge projects, but instead discuss them with the child.

NOTE: Purdue University and the Indiana 4-H Youth Development Programs do not support, endorse, or encourage 4-H programming for children prior to Kindergarten. 4-H Youth Development Extension staff members and 4-H Volunteers may not offer, or encourage others to offer, programming for children prior to Kindergarten.

Mini 4-H Princess Pageant

Mini 4-H members have the opportunity to participate in the Mini 4-H Princess Pageant. They must be enrolled in Franklin County Mini 4-H, have just completed 1st or 2nd Grade, and cannot have been a previous year Princess or Miss Personality.

This event takes place in conjunction with the Franklin County 4-H Queen Pageant at Franklin County High School on the last of Sunday of June at 6:30. The entry fee is $25. More information will be available closer to the contest date.

The required dress for participants on pageant night is a fun, summer dress. They will practice communication skills, get to know other participants, and have fun. An adult must accompany the participants at all times during the event. A Princess and Miss Personality will be chosen to represent the Mini 4-H program during the fair. Participants will help with Mini 4-H project check in and other events throughout the year.

Mini 4-H Clubs

Mini 4-H members are encouraged to sign up for a Mini 4-H Club when they enroll in 4-H Online. Safety Policy for Mini 4-H Members for Animal Exhibits

The safety and well being of our 4-H youth is of the utmost importance. Although kindergarten is specified as the time when a child may begin participation in some 4-H events and activities, parents are encouraged to take into consideration their child's physical and mental development before agreeing to let the child begin to show, work with, or care for animals. Each child matures at a different rate, and children in grades K-2 may still be too young to begin showing, working with, or caring for animals.

The Indiana 4-H Youth Development Program at Purdue University has agreed to allow Mini 4-H members in grades K-2, to participate in non-competitive animal projects subject to certain conditions. These conditions are specified below.

“Mini 4-H members, in grades K through 2, will be allowed to show, work with, or care for animal projects after their parent or legal guardian has signed a liability release. Mini 4-H members may independently show, work with, or care for animals that weigh 300 pounds or less. Mini 4-H members may only show, work with, or care for animals over 300 pounds when they are assisted by a parent, legal guardian, or another adult designated in writing by parent or legal guardian.” (The word assisted means that the adult has control of the animal at all times.)

Mini 4-H members are not required to own the animals they participate with in Mini 4-H. All animals on exhibit should meet the regulations of the Indiana Board of Animal Health Requirements for Exhibition of Domestic Animals in Indiana and meet the vaccination requirements set by Indiana 4-H.

Mini 4-H Animal Exhibits - Dog, Poultry, Rabbit, Swine, Sheep, Meat Goats, Dairy Goats

Mini 4-H members have the opportunity to also exhibit animal projects including Dog Obedience, Poultry, Rabbit, Swine, Sheep, Dairy Goats, and Meat Goats. Mini 4-Hers can show up to 2 animal species at the fair. They must have a liability form signed in order to participate. This form is signed at the time of 4-H Enrollment via 4-H Online.

Participants will not bring their own animal to the fair; this is a mock show where they will work with a regular 4-H member, borrow their animal, and have the experience of being in the show ring. The Mini 4-H class in each species will be at the conclusion of each show. See the Dates, Schedules, and Need to Know section for a list of when each livestock show will take place.

It is the responsibility of the Mini 4-H family to ensure they have a “mentor,” an older Franklin County 4-H member who shows the respective species. This mentor will let the Mini 4-H member borrow their animal and exhibit it in the Mini 4-H Show. If the Mini 4-Her needs a mentor, please contact the Extension Office at least three weeks prior to the county fair and we can work to match them with a mentor.

Mini 4-H Horse and Pony Exhibit

Mini 4-H members may exhibit in the 4-H Horse and Pony Show. Exhibitors may borrow a horse from an older Franklin County 4-H member that is being shown in the horse and pony show. They may also bring their own horse or pony. If they choose to bring their own, the horse/pony must meet the regulations of the Indiana Board of Animal Health Requirements for Exhibition of Domestic Animals in Indiana and meet the vaccination requirements set by Indiana 4-H. This includes the Indiana 4-H Horse Vaccination Form. Contact horse leaders prior to the fair about borrowing or bringing your own horse/pony.

The Mini 4-H Member must be assisted by their parent or legal guardian when showing, working with, and caring for a horse or pony. The word assisted means that the adult has control of the animal at all times. Another adult may assist if the parent or legal guardian designates this in writing.

Mini 4-H members exhibiting horses must wear ASTM or SEI standard F1163 (or above) certified helmets whenever mounted. The parent/guardian is responsible to see that this specified headgear is properly fitted with the approved harness in place and fastened whenever a rider is mounted.

Mini 4-Hers are welcomed and encouraged to join the regular scheduled meetings and clinics. Mini 4-H clinics are held 1 hour prior to the regular clinics. Please contact a club leader for a schedule of clinics and topics for that session.

Franklin County 4-H Fair Animal Project Expectations, Guidelines, and Rules

The rules in this section apply to all animal species.

Animal Ownership

Each 4-H member shall own his/her 4-H exhibit.

1. For 4-H breeding animals: family corporations and/or partnerships of 4-H members with one or more parents, siblings, grandparents, aunts, uncles, or legal guardians are acceptable.
2. For 4-H dairy cattle: family corporations and/or partnerships of the 4-H member with unrelated persons or dairy operations are also acceptable.
3. Dairy heifers, horses, ponies, alpacas and llamas may be leased subject to approval of both the county 4-H dairy, horse and pony, or llama committee and the respective County Extension Educator. 4-H animals (horse and pony, dairy, alpacas and llamas) are only eligible to be leased by a single 4-H member in a 4-H program year. See respective species rules for more information. Find the lease agreement in the appendix (pg 155).

4-H animals are expected to be in the possession of and regular care of the 4-H member who owns/leases them (unless other arrangements have been agreed upon by the County 4-H Extension Educator) no later than May 15 until the conclusion of the county and/or state fair. An exception to this is animals that have not been born/hatched until after the May 15 deadline.

Premise Identification

When enrolling your animals on 4-H Online, you will need a premise ID. This is a number that can be found by contacting the Board of Animal Health (BOAH). It is associated with the location of where your animals are housed through the year and is used for biosecurity purposes. Rabbit exhibitors do not need a premise ID.

Animal Weigh-In/ID Day

4-H market animals and commercial animals - including market lambs and commercial ewes, dairy goat wethers, dairy feeder steers, dairy beef steers, ALL beef cattle including starter calves, meat goat wethers, market goat does - must attend Weigh-In/ID Day each year.

The Extension Office will send 4-H members more information on the selected date. If the selected date does not work, it is up to the 4-H family to contact the Extension Office prior to the event to make other arrangements. Failure to do so may result in losing the opportunity to exhibit at the fair.

Animal Data Entry

ALL animals, including rabbits, horse and pony, sheep, meat goats, dairy goats, swine, beef, and dairy, must be entered in 4-H Online by May 15. Failure to do so will result in losing the opportunity to exhibit at both county and Indiana State Fair. If a 4-Her is still unsure of which animal(s) they plan to exhibit at the fair, it is advised they enter all eligible animals on 4-H Online by May 15. Even if the animal is not born and does not have ID data yet, you must still enter the animal with a pending ID.

Animals exhibited at the Franklin County 4-H Fair must be identified through a tattoo or tag, which must be secured to the animal by May 15 or when they are old enough (for animals that are not born by May 15). Exceptions- dogs, horses and ponies, and poultry. Please see the chart below for specific identification requirements.

Indiana State Fair

If an exhibitor plans to exhibit the animal at the Indiana State Fair, they need to also indicate this on 4-H Online (by checking a box). Exhibiting at the Indiana State Fair may require additional steps so please be sure to read the state fair hand book ahead of time (prior to May 15) and check the state 4-H page for animal identification requirements at <https://extension.purdue.edu/4-H/projects/animal-identification.html> to meet their requirements. One of these requirements may include submitting DNA samples of animals to the county Extension Office prior to May 15.

Indiana 4-H Quality Livestock Care Training

Indiana 4-H Quality Livestock Care Training is a certification that each Indiana 4-H livestock (rabbit, poultry, dairy, beef, swine, dairy goat, meat goat, sheep) exhibitor must obtain prior to exhibiting at the Franklin County 4-H Fair (Sunday of check in). This certification can be completed at an in-person training provided by the 4-H Youth Development Educator. The training must be completed yearly. One alternative is YQCA training completed online. If a 4-H member chooses the YQCA option, they must provide proof of certification. More details about training will be provided in early spring.

4-H Animal Show Eligibility

4-H animals purchased, sold or offered for sale after the ID deadline and prior to the Indiana State Fair (including animals that have gone through a "Premium Only Auction"), shall not be eligible to show in the 4-H show at the Indiana State Fair. Sale of products of animals (milk, cheese, wool, etc.) in lieu of the animal, are considered equivalent to a "Premium Only Auction."

4-H animals exhibited after the May 15 State 4-H animal ID deadline at any show by anyone other than the individual whose 4-H enrollment record is connected to the ID of the animal in Indiana 4-H Online will not be eligible to be shown in the 4-H show at the Indiana State Fair. This term/condition does not apply to siblings, who may show each other's animals at any show during the year without jeopardizing State Fair eligibility. 4-H animals that are selected by 4-H Extension Staff or 4-H Adult Volunteers for use in Showman of Showmen may be used in those county events without jeopardizing State Fair eligibility. This policy applies to all 4-H animal projects. For animal projects without state ID deadlines, the person who enters them in the Indiana State Fair 4-H show is the equivalent of the owner of the animals.

Temporary guardianships established for the intent of animal exhibition or grooming purposes are not permitted and shall result in immediate disqualification.

Animal Exhibitor Responsibilities

4-H Exhibitors are completely responsible for the care and custody of animal exhibits at the Franklin County 4-H Fair. Each 4-H member is responsible for his/her animal(s) until the animal(s) are checked off or accounted for by an appropriate committee member and are loaded for transportation to home or market. All livestock are to be fed and watered daily by 9:00 am, checked during lunch breaks at shows, and after shows. Pens/stalls/cages are to be cleaned daily and bedded. Only shavings or mulch are acceptable in the barns. Aisles are to be kept clean at all times. Tie out areas are to be cleaned up by those who use them. Wash racks are to be used first by the animals that are showing that day, and then shared by the rest as usual. All grooming chutes/stands must be near the respective species' barn and visible by all other 4-H members and volunteers.

4-Hers are responsible for being present at both the show and auction in order to participate. If there is an emergency or an unforeseen event that does not permit the exhibitor to be present, contact the Extension Educator and/or the 4-H Association Directors as soon as possible. A decision will be made at that time as to whether or not to allow another 4-H member to exhibit the absent 4-H member's animal.

A 4-H member may need assistance while showing their animals or they may have two animals being shown at the same time, requiring someone else to show one of the animals. The person assisting must be a current 4-H member in Franklin County and be of approximately the same age and experience. The respective species committee has the final decision. Parent(s)/Guardian(s) are not permitted in the show arena without prior permission.

As the owner and caretaker of the animal, it is expected that the 4-H member treats the animal in a humane manner and be aware of other 4-Hers, volunteers, and spectators who may be watching. Any form of inhumane treatment will not be tolerated and can result in dismissal from further exhibition at the Franklin County 4-H Fair at the discretion of the Extension Educator and the 4-H Association Directors.

Animal Health Requirements

Animals may not show any sign of contagious or infectious disease while at the fair. Animals in question will be checked by a vet whose decision is final.

Animal affidavits are not required unless the meat packer requires them. If this is the case, the Extension Office will communicate with all exhibitors planning to send their animals to the packer.

Animals administered non-labeled or non-prescribed drugs will be eliminated from the livestock auction. The 4-H Association does not promote or condone the usage of tranquilizers or unlabeled drugs. Liability of usage of the same falls into the hands of the owner of the animal.

Any animal found to have surgical alterations other than dehorning, castration, or docking as permitted by the species-specific rules may be disqualified. Unethical fitting also includes attempts to disrupt or change normal dental development. The act of artificially filling animals internally, which includes stomach pumping or any other method per os (by esophagus) is prohibited for all species. The direct application of ice, ice water, alcohol, Freon, or any other refrigerant to the hide of an animal is prohibited.

Premium Livestock Auction

The Franklin County 4-H Fair Livestock Auction is a premium only auction, meaning that the animal being sold does not actually go home with the buyer. Essentially, the buyer is making a donation to the exhibitor. The Extension Office will send out a sign up form for the auction prior to fair week. It is the responsibility of the 4-Her to make any corrections to the auction list during fair week. The 4-H exhibitor must communicate changes to the Extension Office by Thursday at 5 pm. Failure to do so may result in not participating in the auction.

Species eligible for sale in the auction include beef, dairy cattle, meat goats, dairy goats, poultry, rabbits, sheep, and swine. Animals going through the auction must have been shown at the Franklin County 4-H Fair during the respective year. Eligible animals that can go through the auction are as follows:

Species	Option 1	Option 2
Beef	Steers (must be at least 900 pounds)	Market Heifers
Dairy	Dairy Beef Steers	Pitcher of Milk (females; sold as a group and split between exhibitors)
Swine	Barrows (must be at least 200 pounds)	— — —
Sheep	Wethers (must be at least 80 pounds)	Market Ewe Lambs
Meat Goat	Wethers (must be at least 50 pounds)	Pygmy Wethers (must be at least 26 pounds)
Dairy Goat	Wethers (must be at least 50 pounds)	Goat Cheese (females; sold as a group and split between exhibitors)
Rabbit	Meat Pens (3 rabbits, each must weigh between 3.5 and 5.5 pounds)	— — —
Poultry	Broilers (2 birds, each must weigh between 3.5 and 5.5 pounds)	Roasters (2 birds, each must weigh between 5.6 and 10 pounds)

Weights will go by the check in weight from Sunday. Animals that do not make weight will not be permitted to go through the auction. Animals will not be reweighed.

4-Hers can auction two of the above exhibits, one of each species (i.e. steer and pitcher of milk, market wether and rabbit meat pen, goat cheese and barrow). 4-Hers must be at the auction and in line on time otherwise they may lose their opportunity to participate. Swine exhibitors will line up in the swine barn. All other species will line up outside the cattle barn. Once an animal goes through the auction, they are not eligible to be shown in another 4-H competition, including the Indiana State Fair. This includes dairy goat females and dairy cattle females who are “sold” as goat cheese/pitcher of milk. Rabbits who are sold as meat pens cannot be exhibited as breeding rabbits in another 4-H competition, including the Indiana State Fair.

A 5% commission will be charged to all animals who go through the auction. This commission will go to the 4-H Association in order to improve livestock facilities. Bath State Bank clerks the auction and will handle all associated forms, checks, bills, etc. that are part of the livestock auction. Participants will receive their check in the mail a few weeks after the auction.

Auction buyers typically consist of local businesses and friends and family of 4-H members. Auction participants do not need to recruit buyers ahead of time. However, if they wish to ask for donations ahead of time, they may complete a Group Buyer form, which will be provided to 4-H members closer to the fair. Buyers also have the opportunity to submit a Bonus Bucks form at the conclusion of the auction if they would like to add an additional donation onto an exhibitor’s top bid.

Each year, the sale order for the auction will rotate. The first species to sell will move to the end of the order the following year and the subsequent species will move up one spot. The 2023 sale order is as follows: Swine, Meat Goats, Dairy Goats, Beef, Poultry, Rabbits, Dairy, Sheep.

The order of exhibitors for each species will go as follows (assuming these exhibitors are participating in the auction): Grand Champion, Reserve Grand Champion, Grand Champion County Born and Raised, Reserve Grand Champion County Born and Raised, Premier Showman, ten-year project members, ten-year 4-H members, and then the rest of the exhibitors will be randomly assigned to their spot in line.

Dress Code for Animal Shows

4-H members are required to wear appropriate clothing for livestock shows and the livestock auction. Appropriate dress includes clothing that is neat and clean, long pants, and closed toe shoes to protect the feet. Shirts should be button down or golf/polo type shirts with a collar- no tank tops, t-shirts, sandals, etc. Inappropriate shirts with vulgar language, promoting tobacco, drugs and alcohol or sexual content are not allowed. 4-H exhibitors and volunteers in the show ring may not wear clothing or hats with any farm names on them during the livestock shows. Rabbit exhibitors are encouraged to wear a white lab coat or a white long sleeve, collared shirt.

Exhibitors will also be assigned an exhibitor number that will be mailed to them prior to the fair. Exhibitors are expected to have this number with them and secure it to the back of their shirt with safety pins during all shows (except Horse & Pony and Dogs, which have their own exhibitor identification system). This will allow for spectators, committees, and other show staff to identify who is showing which animal.

Animal Exhibit Guidelines

4-H livestock members are not permitted to exhibit the same animal in more than one class in a given year. Exceptions are: Horse and Pony, Dogs, showmanship for all species, pen of 2 (sheep), Top First Year Barrow (swine), best udder (dairy goats), mother/daughter, (dairy goats), produce of dam (dairy goats), and county born and raised classes.

Clipping and Grooming

4-H Exhibitors may receive clipping and grooming assistance from members of their immediate family (father, mother and siblings), from a current Indiana 4-H member, and from individuals enrolled in the Indiana 4-H Approved Animal Grooming Assistance Program. Temporary guardianships established for the intent of animal exhibition or grooming purposes are not permitted and shall result in immediate disqualification.

Meat Packer

4-Hers exhibiting livestock may have the option to send their market animals on a meat truck for a base-bid price at the conclusion of fair week. There is currently not a meat packer option for cattle, swine, or poultry at the fair. Every effort will be made by the 4-H Association Directors and Livestock Committee members to secure livestock buyers for the other market animals (rabbits, sheep, goats). However, as the market is always changing, there is often no way to know if we have a buyer until fair week. In order to have an accurate number for meat packers bidding, we will need to know on Sunday at check in if animals are going home or on the truck (base-bid). Families must also have a "Plan B" in case a buyer cannot be secured for the livestock. The packer has the right to refuse any animals that do not meet their quality assurance standards. The American Lamb Board will collect a fee of $.0007/lb from any lamb that is sold to a meat packer. This will come out of the exhibitor's check, which will be mailed at the time of auction checks.

Animal Release

All animals (excluding Horse and Pony and Dogs) are not permitted to leave the fairgrounds at any point between check in (Sunday) and check out (Thursday night). Only State Fair animals may be released early with permission from the 4-H Association Board of Directors or the Extension Educator. The State Fair receipt must be presented within two hours after the respective show for the State Fair livestock to go home. All other exhibitors who take their animals home early may not be eligible to show the following year and/or lose their opportunity to participate in the auction.

The release time for animals going home is Thursday from 9:00 pm until midnight. Exhibitors may also check out on Friday morning from 7:00 am until 10:00 am.

It is the responsibility of the 4-H Exhibitor to clean up their respective animal pen after check out.

Animal Check In

All animals are required to check in at their respective times unless otherwise given permission from the Extension Educator or 4-H Association Directors. Please see Dates, Schedules, and Need to Know for check in times. Market animals will be weighed at check in. There will be no re-weigh.

Pen assignments will be handled by the committee members for each species. Tack pens will be divided according to room in the barn. Tack can be set up during the assigned set up times in the schedule or during/after check in. During check in, exhibitors can pick up green name tags for their pens from the show arena announcer stand to attach to their pens. Exhibitors are responsible for making sure their pens have name tags on them at all times.

Livestock Posters

Members enrolled in an animal project who choose not to exhibit live animals may also exhibit a poster and enter it as a "Livestock Poster" static project. Please see Static Project Expectations, Guidelines, and Rules for more information.

Showmanship

Showmanship is a competition that allows animal exhibitors to showcase their knowledge and animal handling skills to the judge. Rather than the animal being judged, the 4-Her is being judged. Each species' showmanship competition may be a little different. For example, in Dog Obedience, showmanship is focused on how well the exhibitor can control the dog and show it in a way that best represents its breed. For poultry showmanship, the exhibitor has more communication with the judge. The judge questions the exhibitor on what they know about their bird as well as other breeds and varieties. Numerous showmanship manuals exist and can be useful to understand what to expect on the day of the contest.

Showmanship will take place on the day of the respective species' show. Exhibitors should sign up for the contest via Fair Entry prior to the fair. Exhibitors are competing against others in their age group. However, after winning their age group, the exhibitor will automatically advance to the next age group the following year. (i.e. If Susan, a fourth grader, wins Junior Showmanship, next year she will participate in Intermediate Showmanship).

Exhibitors are required to use their own animal for the contest that they exhibited at the respective species show at the Franklin County 4-H Fair in the respective year.

For Horse and Pony, the divisions are as follows:

Beginner: Grades 3-5

Intermediate: Grades 6-8

Advanced: Grades 9 -12

The winner of the Champion Mustang Showmanship represents in Showman of Showmen.

For Beef, Dairy Cattle, Dogs, Goats, Poultry, Rabbits, Sheep, and Swine, the divisions are as follows:

Junior: Grades 3-5 (previous Junior winners must move to Intermediate)

Intermediate: Grades 6-8, plus the previous Junior winners until they age out or win the class (previous Intermediate winners must move to Senior)

Senior: Grades 9 -12, plus the previous Intermediate winners (previous Senior winners must move to Premier)

Premier: Includes all previous Senior & Premier showmanship winners of that species who are currently enrolled in and showing said species, PLUS the current year's Senior, Intermediate and Junior winners.

One winner for each age group will be chosen as Champion. For Premier/Champion Mustang Showmanship, the judge may select a second place winner. However, this will not be announced. It will simply serve as an alternate in the case that the Champion winner chooses not to participate in the Showman of Showmen Contest, if applicable. Exhibitors are to participate in the age group based on their 4-H grade, or the grade they just completed in school, unless they won their age group the previous year. Once an exhibitor has won Senior Showmanship, they will continue to participate in Premier Showmanship year after year. Winners of the current year's Junior, Intermediate, and Senior Showmanship classes will also participate in Premier Showmanship, just for the year that they won. The show order will be: Senior, Intermediate, Junior, Premier.

Showman of Showmen Competition

The Showman of Showmen Contest is exactly what it sounds like – THE SHOWMAN out of all the showmen at the Franklin County 4-H Fair. Beef, dairy cattle, horse, swine, dairy goats, meat goats, and sheep each have one representative that participates in the contest. This representative won Premier Showmanship, meaning they have the best skills and knowledge in regards to their respective species. In the Showman of Showmen contest each representative is challenged with showing all seven species. Participants will not know if they are part of the contest until their premier showmanship class ends. If you believe that you may win premier showmanship for your species, it is advised to begin learning about the other six species ahead of time. It is also advised to work with other 4-Hers and practice showmanship ahead of the Showman of Showmen contest.

The contest will begin at the horse and pony arena where each of the seven participants will first show the horse. Then, they will move to the show arena and show sheep, dairy goats, meat goats, beef cattle, dairy cattle, and swine. The time limit is 10 minutes per class.

If a 4-H member wins premier showmanship in more than one species, he/she chooses which species to represent. The alternate (or second place) in the species not chosen will represent that species in the contest. A past Showman of Showmen winner may compete if he/she is representing a different species as premier showman than years past. Premier Showmanship winners should go to the Extension Office to pick up their exhibitor number and their t-shirt prior to the contest on Thursday. They will wear the shirt and number while competing.

Each contestant will draw a number at the beginning of each class to determine which animal they are assigned and what order they enter the show ring. Instructions will be given before the contest. Contestants will not be allowed to talk to others after the contest has started. Contestants will be placed first through seventh in each class. Total low score wins. If a tie occurs, the contestant with the lowest (best) class placing wins. Any decisions concerning the contest not covered above will be made by the livestock superintendent or the Extension Educator. Each species committee is responsible for selecting seven animals (1 horse) to be used in the contest and ensuring the contest animals are cleaned, brushed, and combed, but not excessively fitted.

Franklin County 4-H Fair Static Project Expectations, Guidelines, and Rules

Exhibit Categories

Most static projects are broken down into categories based on 4-H grade in one of three ways:

- Beginner (grades 3-5), Intermediate (grades 6- 8), and Advanced (grades 9 - 12)
- Level A (grades 3- 4), Level B (grades 5- 6), Level C (grades 7- 9), and Level D (grade 10- 12)
- Junior (grades 3-7) and Senior (grades 8 -12).

Please note that there are a few projects that are broken down into categories in other ways. For instance, some may be based on project experience level. The 4-Her begins in Level 1 for the first year they enroll in the project, regardless of the 4-H grade. The second year they enroll in the project, they move to Level 2 and so on. Please see specific project rules.

Exhibit Requirements

4-H static project categories are created to provide youth with the opportunity to showcase their knowledge and creativity as well as explore new interests. Each project has a set of rules that must be followed. All 4-H exhibits will be displayed for the public to view. They must be appropriate, prepared during the current club year, and created by the 4-H member. Please see each project's rules to understand what to exhibit for the fair.

All posters, notebooks, and display boards must contain a reference list indicating where the information was obtained, giving credit to the original author, to complete the 4-H member's exhibit. This reference list should include web links, people and professionals interviewed, books, magazines etc. It is recommended that this reference list be attached to the back of the poster or display board, be the last page of the notebook, or included as part of the display visible to the public. The judge will not discredit any exhibit because of how the references are listed.

Entry Tags

In order to know whose project is whose, each 4-Her will have an entry tag attached to their exhibit. The Extension Office will use data that was entered in Fair Entry to print out entry tags. The Extension Office will mail exhibit tags to 4-Hers closer to the fair once Fair Entry access closes and all exhibits have been entered.

Poster Project Specifications

Many static projects take the form of a poster. Please be sure to follow all poster guidelines, which are also consistent with the Indiana State Fair poster requirements.

All posters (with an exception of salon print photography posters) should be displayed horizontally and measure 28 inches wide and 22 inches tall. Posters must have non-bendable backing (i.e. foam core mounting, plywood, etc.) that does not exceed $\frac{3}{8}$ inch overall thickness. The poster must also be wrapped in a clear plastic sleeve (not plastic food wrap).

Exhibit tags are to be secured in the lower right-hand corner on the poster. The poster title should be placed in the top center. Follow project rules for other requirements.

Poster boards and clear plastic sleeves that satisfy these requirements can be bought from the Extension Office. It is strongly recommended to buy the poster board and plastic sleeve from the office to ensure that it meets the requirements. For salon print photography poster requirements, please see the photography rules.

Ribbons and Awards

Ribbons and awards will be selected at the time of judging by the respective project judge. The judge will complete a score sheet that 4-Hers will receive to understand how their exhibit was judged and what could be improved upon. Each judge is different and may provide various amounts of feedback. Remember, it's just one person's opinion. The judge reserves the right to not select projects for special merits, state fair entries, etc. Please see below for a guide on how ribbons are given.

State Fair: awarded to projects that will be exhibited at the Indiana State Fair.

Special Merit: awarded to entries that are near perfect and are in the running for division champion.

Blue: awarded to those entries that exceed the average standard.

Red: awarded to those entries that meet the average standard or are slightly below the average standard.

White: awarded to those entries that do not meet average standard.

Green: awarded when required components or pieces are missing from the exhibit.

Division Champion: awarded to the best entry in the category of the project.

Reserve Division Champion: awarded to the second best entry in the category of the project.

Grand Champion: awarded to the best entry in the project.

Reserve Grand Champion: awarded to the second best entry in the project.

Sweepstakes Awards

Static projects can be broken down into four cluster areas. At the conclusion of project judging, a project from each cluster will be chosen as the Sweepstakes Winner, meaning it best represents the project cluster. Winners will be announced at Monday night’s awards presentation.

All arts and craft exhibits must include a 4-H Craft Information Card, 4-H 618A, found in the appendix (pg 163). This information card is to describe work completed so the judge can more accurately evaluate the exhibit. Craft information cards are for judging purposes only and will not be returned to the exhibitor.

If multiple pieces make up the exhibit, a photograph of the complete exhibit should be attached to the exhibit so the total exhibit can properly be displayed. For safety purposes any craft exhibit that resembles a sword, knife, or look-a-like weapon will be judged but will not be displayed.

State Fair Entries

3 entries per county; one per level.

Awards

Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion; Champion and Reserve Champion in each division

Exhibit Guidelines

Skills and techniques demonstrated should be age/grade appropriate. While it is not to say a beginner level member cannot master an advanced level skill, it would be rare and unique. Therefore, exhibited cakes must demonstrate the minimum five techniques from their given level outlined in Indiana 4-H Cake Decorating Skills and Techniques, 4-H 710A (see appendix, pg 168), but may also include higher/lower level techniques that have been mastered. Any higher/lower level techniques will not be counted as part of the minimum five, but nevertheless will be evaluated for quality. All exhibited cakes must be created using a Styrofoam, foam, or other solid dummy. Unless otherwise stated, cakes are to be iced using royal icing or buttercream. Buttercream icing will not withstand environmental conditions and may become soft, melt, not withhold its shape, and colors may bleed when being displayed for an extended period of time. When displaying a cut-up cake or tiered cake, the exhibitor must include a diagram and description indicating how the cake was assembled. This diagram and description can be attached to or written on the skills sheet. All exhibits must include a completed Cake Decorating Skills Sheet (see appendix, pg 172) and must accompany the cake for the judge's reference during judging. Skills sheets are for judging purposes only and will not be returned to the exhibitor.

Exhibit Class Guidelines

Beginner (grades 3-5)

A minimum of five beginner level skills are to be demonstrated. A list of skills to choose from can be found on the Indiana 4-H Cake Decorating Skills and Techniques, 4-H 710A sheet. Cakes must be on a cake board strong enough to support the cake (approximately 3/8" thick) and 2-4" larger than the cake. For example, if the cake is 8" in diameter, then the cake board must be 10-12" in diameter. The cake board must be neatly covered and well taped or otherwise attached underneath. Cakes exhibited in the beginner level are to be a single tier/layer, no more than 5" tall, and may be round, square, or rectangular and the cake board is to be no more than 12"x12".

Intermediate (grades 6-8)

A minimum of five intermediate level skills are to be demonstrated and the cake may include additional skills from the beginner level. A list of skills to choose from can be found on the Indiana 4-H Cake Decorating Skills and Techniques, 4-H 710A sheet. Cakes must be on a cake board strong enough to support the cake (approximately 3/8" thick) and 2-4" larger than the cake. For example, if the cake is 9"x13" rectangular, then the cake board must be 11"x15" to 13"x17" rectangular. The cake board must be neatly covered and well taped or otherwise attached underneath. Cakes exhibited in the intermediate level are to be a single or double tier/layer, no more than 12" tall and may be any shape. Youth may choose to decorate an inverted (upside down) character pan or create a 3-dimensional cake. It is also permissible to cut-up pieces of Styrofoam, foam, or other solid material to create a new shape, like a butterfly or castle for example. The cake board is to be no more than 24"x24".

Advanced (grades 9-12)

A minimum of five advanced level skills are to be demonstrated and the cake may include additional skills from the beginner and intermediate levels. A list of skills to choose from can be found on the Indiana 4-H Cake Decorating Skills and Techniques, 4-H 710A sheet. Cakes must be on a cake board strong enough to support the cake (approximately 1/2" thick) and 4" larger than the base cake. For example, if the cake is 26" in diameter, then the cake board must be 30" in diameter. The cake board must be neatly covered and well taped or otherwise attached underneath. Cakes exhibited in the advanced level may be multiple layers and/or tiered and may include multiple cakes, like a wedding cake. Youth may choose to create a character or 3-dimensional cake by cutting-up pieces of Styrofoam, foam, or other solid material to create a new shape. Dowel rods, plates, etc. should be used to support multiple layers and tiers. Fondant icing, gum, and sugar paste is permissible. Cakes may be any shape, no more than 36" tall and the cake board is to be no more than 36"x36".

Child Development Rules

Description

Youth will learn about developmental stages of infants, toddlers and young children.

State Fair Entries

Exhibitors will utilize the project manual provided by the Extension Office to complete this project. Activities may be designed to be displayed on the floor, but please be considerate of space availability. Each item is to be labeled with the 4-H member's name, county and club so fair staff can keep all components together if it needs to be moved after judging is complete.

This project will help you study insects and their relationship with people. You can also learn how to collect, preserve, and identify insects.

State Fair Entries

3 collection exhibits per county, one per level

3 educational exhibits per county, one per level

Awards

Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion; Champion and Reserve Champion in each division

Exhibit Guidelines

Exhibitors are to enter divisions based on the number of years enrolled in the project- not by their grade in school. They may choose to exhibit an educational exhibit (poster) or a collection.

Collection Guidelines:

Exhibitors should visit the state 4-H website at <https://extension.purdue.edu/4-H/projects/4-h-project-entomology.html> to access forms, cards, and other important information regarding the entomology collection project.

Collections are to include the following:

- Title as Insect Collection year in Entomology
- Order – refer to ID-401.
- Display – mounted insects are to have been legally and personally collected in the United States and displayed in an 18”x24” collection box displayed horizontally. Collections including multiple boxes are to be numbered 1 of 3, etc. ID 401 A-F cards (for Beginner and Intermediate) and 401-I

- cards (for Advanced) are to be placed inside the display box in an attractive manner.
- Identification – Collection display boxes are expected to contain the specified number of insects, families, and orders specified (see chart below). All insects must be in the adult stage and be properly mounted on insect pins or be contained in vials as directed.
 - Pin Labels - Each pin or vial must contain two labels:
 - 1) Top label is to include collection date, location, and collector name.
 - 2) Bottom label is to include common name and other optional identification data.
 - Box Labels – Box labels (computer generated or neatly printed) are used for orders and families as required (see chart below) and are to be placed flat against the bottom of the box. Insects must be properly grouped directly under the correct order and family label. For example, all insects belonging to a particular order must be placed under that order label. Orders to be used are listed in the reference book ID- 401. If family level identification is required, the insects should be further grouped together under the correct family label.
 - Educational Box – One additional box (educational), based on the specific theme (see chart below), is required for grades 9-12, in addition to the insect collection boxes. This box can be created in any manner chosen (without the mounting, pinning or identifying restrictions specified above).

Special Statements

Monarch Butterfly Statement:

Q: Many have noticed the decrease in number of Monarch butterflies both in Indiana and throughout the country and wonder if and how Entomology at Purdue is responding. Are 4-H and youth still required to catch these endangered insects for their collection boxes?

A: Monarch butterflies are now officially on the threatened species list. While we know that collecting Monarch butterflies for 4-H collections or displays does not constitute a significant risk to their population when compared to the effects of climate change, pesticide contamination and habitat loss, capitalizing on this opportunity to discuss their decline is an excellent way to bring public focus to this important issue. We want our youth (and all IN citizens) to recognize the Monarch butterfly, understand its biology and be empathetic to its conservation.

Therefore, we have instituted the following update to our youth and 4H Entomology programs. Effective immediately, we no longer encourage students to ‘collect’ Monarch butterflies for exhibits, displays or 4-H insect collections. But, rather than simply removing the Monarch butterfly from the list of 150 insects that 4-H students are to recognize, we want to highlight it so that students really do learn to recognize them and understand their peril. After all, the more we are familiar with this species, the more apt we will be to assist and support the conservation of this iconic species.

Spotted Lanternfly Statement:

Q: Are there any new changes to rules or directions for the 4H or FFA youth projects or competitions that students and coaches should look for?

A: To keep the youth Career Development (CDE judging) and 4-H collection projects current, it is important to occasionally add new insects to the list. Due to the invasion of a serious new insect pest throughout the Midwest called the Spotted Lanternfly, we have added it to the list of insects found in the “How to Make an Awesome insect Collection and (ID-401) and Who Let the Bugs Out (ID-402) extension resources. Please be aware that students are now expected to identify and understand its biology and behavior as well as its potential impact in Agriculture.

Indiana 4-H Youth Development partners with Purdue University academic departments to develop 4-H project guidelines. The Monarch butterfly and Spotted Lanternfly statements are provided by Dr. Timothy J. Gibb, Department of Entomology.

Exhibit Guidelines

Purdue Extension Food Safety Policy (revised 10/2022):

For Food Competitions: Fillings, frostings, glazes, and meringues are not permitted to contain cream cheese, sour cream, heavy cream, or whipped cream if they are not fully cooked/baked. These items are allowed as ingredients in food products IF the final product is cooked/baked. Additionally, raw milk, raw milk products or uncooked eggs/egg whites are not permitted. Eggs/egg whites that have been cooked to 160oF (i.e. pasteurized or included as part of a batter and baked) are acceptable. No home- canned fruits, vegetables, or meats are permitted as ingredients in food products.

Foods should be transported to the competition in a way that minimizes contamination and maintains the quality of the food (i.e. foods that are judged as frozen should remain frozen at all times).

Recipes must be provided that identifies all ingredients that were used in each part of the product. Any ingredient that could be a potential allergen must be clearly identified. Potential food allergens include, but are not limited to, milk, eggs, peanuts, tree nuts, fish, crustacean shellfish, wheat, soy and sesame. Each food product must be labeled with the following information:

- Name
- Address (4-H member information can be taken from enrollment if needed)
- Contact information (phone and/or email address; 4-H member information can be taken from enrollment if needed)
- Date the food product was made

Contestants should carefully wash their hands and make sure that their hands do not have any open cuts before preparing foods. If cuts are present, the wound should be bandaged and a single use food service glove worn on the hand during all stages of food production. Contestants should not be preparing food exhibits for competition within 48 hours of recovering from any illness. People experiencing symptoms of vomiting, diarrhea, fever, and/or jaundice should not be allowed to prepare food.

Judges and individuals who will consume products from county and/or state competitions should be informed that they are at risk for foodborne illness since the established policy cannot guarantee that an entry has been properly prepared or handled before, during or following the competition. The food products for competitions are home produced and processed and the production area is not inspected by the Indiana Department of Health. Tasting of a food product is solely at the discretion of the judge and consumers. Judges are NOT to taste any home preserved foods such as low-acid or acidified foods like green beans, tomatoes or tomato products, jams/jellies/fruit preserves or fermented products produced in the home.

Baked food products may be from a boxed mix following the instructions, a boxed mix with added ingredients, or ingredients combined from scratch. Youth are to place their name, county and club on the bottom side of their plate, pan or other container and the official entry tag provided will be placed with the exhibit.

A completed recipe card (see appendix; pg 164) is to be submitted with each exhibit. Recipe cards are for judging purposes only and will not be returned to the exhibitor. Laminating, wrapping the recipe card in plastic, or placing it in a clear plastic bag is optional. Since it is illegal in the State of Indiana for youth under the age of 21 to purchase or consume alcoholic beverages, 4-H members are to use recipes that do not include an alcoholic beverage as an ingredient. A suitable non-alcoholic or imitation product may be substituted.

Baked food products should be covered during transport and displayed on a paper or foam plate, or another type of disposable container. Pies, casseroles and other similar items are to be baked in a disposable pan. Cakes and sticky items may be displayed on a cardboard strong enough to support the item and covered in foil, plastic, wax paper, or similar substance.

Perishable baked exhibits entered for state fair competition will not be displayed and instead will be donated to a central Indiana homeless shelter.

Genealogy Rules

Description

This project helps young people know where their ancestors resided, traveled, and developed some family tradition.

State Fair Entries

5 entries per county; one per division.

Awards

Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion; Champion and Reserve Champion in each division

Exhibit Guidelines

Forms for this project are found on the Indiana 4-H Web site www.extension.purdue.edu/4-H click on "projects" and then on Genealogy to reach downloadable forms. This project is organized into divisions and not grades. Youth cannot start in Division 3 without first completing Division 1 and Division 2. This is a project that builds on the previous division information in order to be successful in building your family tree. If you are using a genealogical commercial software program, you may need to type in or hand write in information required by the Indiana 4-H genealogy project. See 4-H forms on the 4-H website linked above.

The exhibit will consist of no more than four (4) notebooks for Division 1-4 and first year Advanced Division. (If a notebook requires additional space, label it as notebook x, continued.) Those notebooks are:

- Book #1 – Appropriate size notebook or binder, contains introduction sheet, pedigree charts and family group sheets
- Book #2 – Appropriate size notebook or binder, contains additional information worksheets and diary of work
- Book #3 – Appropriate size notebook or binder, containing supporting documents, pictures, etc.
- Book #4 – Appropriate size notebook or binder, contains Advanced Division options only (Begin using this notebook in the first year of the advanced division or the fifth year of project enrollment.)
- Another notebook should be maintained and kept in a secure place at home to keep original personal and legal documents as well as previously exhibited work.

Note – Youth may consolidate information in order to have fewer notebooks. In this case indicate on the cover the notebook numbers included and use dividers to separate information by notebook number as well as contents as indicated below.

Notebooks should be tabbed and in the following order:

- Book #1 - Introductory Page; Pedigree Charts; Family Group Sheets
- Book #2 - Additional Information Worksheets; Diary of Your Work
- Book #3 - Any Other Documents (label with ancestor numbers on tab)
- Book #4 – Advanced Division Options (label each tab separately with the specific option); Diary of Your Work (this will be a second diary describing work done for each advanced division option)

Pedigree Charts, Family Group Sheets, Additional Information Worksheets, and Diary Sheets are to be placed in the notebook back-to-back in sheet protectors to save space, reduce the information being damaged, and reduce the number of sheet protectors required.

So the notebook exhibit can be displayed to the public and to minimize the potential of identity theft, original legal documents are NOT to be included in the exhibit notebook. Instead, a photocopy of any legal document is to be included in the notebook and all identifiable information (like social security numbers) except for names is to be completely marked out. Original legal documents are to be kept in a secure location by the 4-H member and his/her family.

All posters, notebooks, and display boards must include a reference list indicating where information was obtained, giving credit to the original author, to complete the 4-H members exhibit. This reference list should/might include web site links, people and professionals interviewed, books, magazines, etc.

Reference notations are to be made in the “source” column of the Family Group Sheet and on each document.

If information on a family member is unknown, an additional information worksheet for each required ancestor is still required. Write “unknown” or “NIA” (no information available) in PENCIL for each sheet of unknown ancestors or list several ancestors on a page and insert page in proper numerical order.

After exhibiting the 1st year of the ADVANCED Division, only the Advanced Division notebook (Book #4) with ALL OPTIONS (no pedigree charts, no family group sheets, no additional information sheets, no documents from Divisions 1-5) needs to be exhibited each year the genealogy project continues.

Geology Rules

Description

Geology involves studying the earth's crust, its layers, and their history. Youth learn to identify Indiana rocks, minerals, and fossils.

State Fair Entries

3 per county; one per level

Awards

Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion; Champion and Reserve Champion in each division

Exhibit Guidelines

You may purchase your specimens and may display rocks, fossils, and minerals. If you purchase a specimen, indicate when and where you purchased it and the location where you would expect to find the specimen. If you collect a specimen, indicate the county and township where you found it.

Posters and display boxes will be exhibited "standing up" at the Indiana State Fair. Therefore, you need to mount your specimens securely. Subject matter experts suggest the following methods: soaking ½ cotton ball in Elmer's glue, hot glue, or clear tub sealant. Place the cotton ball in your box and put your rock (or fossil or mineral) on the cotton ball and let sit. It will take 1-2 weeks for Elmer's glue to fully harden. Specimens mounted with Elmer's glue can be removed by soaking the cotton ball in water. Glue remaining on the rock may be brushed off with an old, damp toothbrush.

When exhibiting rocks show a fresh surface (recently cracked or broken surface) to help judges identify the rock.

Labels - Include the specific geographical location where you would expect to find any specimens as well as where you actually acquired it (found, purchased, etc.).

Do not identify your specimens any further than phylum and class. There is one exception to this for fossils which are identified to phylum OR class. Class should only be used for fossils of mollusks, backboned animals, and arthropods.

Exhibits may also include lower level techniques that have been mastered. Any lower level techniques will not be counted as part of the minimum five, but nevertheless will be evaluated for quality. A woodworking skills sheet (see appendix, pg 187) is to be submitted with the exhibit for judging. Skills sheets are for judging purposes only and will not be returned to the exhibitor. Youth may also choose to create an educational poster, notebook or display about any manual activity or on any woodworking topic of choice that is age/grade appropriate.

Zero-Turn Mower Operator Skills Rules

Description

This project provides a hands-on learning experience that educates youth on safely operating a zero-turn mower.

State Fair Entries

3 Juniors and 3 Seniors will advance to the area contest in Rush County (but may only represent one of the following- Tractor Operator Skills, Lawn and Garden Operator Skills, Zero Turn Mower Operator Skills)

Awards

Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion in each age division

Exhibit Guidelines

Divisions are split into Junior (grades 3-7) and Senior (grades 8-12). Participants will take a written test and a parts identification test prior to the fair. Participants will also partake in driving a zero-turn mower in a course during pre-fair judging at the fairgrounds. The Extension Office will send out information regarding these events at a later date.

Participants are encouraged to visit the state 4-H website at <https://extension.purdue.edu/4-H/projects/4-h-project-tractor-and-mower-safety-and-operator-skills.html> for practice questions, parts identification, course outlines, and other helpful resources.

The operator skills component is an educational and training activity conducted by adult 4-H volunteers. A parent or guardian is encouraged to be present when their child is operating a tractor. The adult 4-H volunteer has the authority to deny a child the opportunity to participate in the operator skills option when it is deemed a child is unable to safely operate a zero-turn mower due to size, weight, or any other reason that could place the child and/or others in harm.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to the terms of the lease involving Animal's Name _____ Breed _____ Sex _____ Reg. No. _____

Description of markings/ characteristics _____.

This lease is to run from May 15, 20__ to September 1, 20__ and can be canceled at any time if the lessee fails to fulfill the conditions of the agreement as specified herein.

The lessee agrees to take full responsibility for the care of the animal at the lessee's expense. This will include all necessary health care, proper and adequate nutrition, water and shelter. The lessor cannot dictate the use and availability of the animal to the lessee during the term of the lease.

The lessee will insure the animal with mortality insurance for the sum of $_____. The wording of the insurance policy must protect the interest of both the lessee and the lessor. The lessee will keep up the payments on the said full mortality insurance policy at the lessee's expense for the duration of the lease. In the event of the death of this animal, the lessee will notify the lessor and the insurance carrier at once, and the lessee will order an immediate necropsy by a veterinarian mutually agreed upon. Indiana 4-H Cake Decorating Skills and Techniques

Youth and their mentor/volunteer leader/instructor should use this chart as a guide when deciding appropriate skills to incorporate in a decorated cake for exhibit. While this list is a guide, it is not meant to be an all-inclusive list and youth should demonstrate skills they are most comfortable mastering. For example, some youth in the intermediate level might feel comfortable attempting advanced level skills, but it is unlikely a beginner level exhibitor will be able to successfully master the advanced level skills. Exhibited cakes must demonstrate the minimum five techniques from their given level but may also include higher/lower level techniques that have been mastered. Any higher/lower level techniques will not be counted as part of the minimum five, but nevertheless will be evaluated for quality. Youth are encouraged to utilize a number of resources such as web sites, print material, social media, and television shows when learning cake decorating skills. Skills learned from these types of resources may be demonstrated provided they are age/grade appropriate.

Electric and Electronic Skills and Knowledge Chart

Youth and their mentor/volunteer leader/instructor should use this chart as a guide when deciding appropriate skills and knowledge to incorporate in an electricity or electronics exhibit. While this list is a guide, it is not meant to be an all-inclusive list. Youth in Level 2 might feel comfortable attempting Level 5 skills, but it is unlikely that a beginner exhibitor will be able to successfully master Level 5 skills. Skills and knowledge learned from other types of resources can be demonstrated provided they are age/grade appropriate.

The “X” indicates suggested level to acquire respective skill or knowledge. Exhibits must include a minimum of 5 techniques from their level indicated in the chart below. They may include additional techniques from other levels as deemed appropriate, but will be evaluated for quality. For example, Level 3 exhibitors may use any techniques found in Level 1 or 2 but the exhibit must include a minimum of 5 Level 3 techniques, either demonstrated or explained.

Indiana 4-H Sewing Skills and Techniques

Youth and their mentor/volunteer leader/instructor should use this chart as a guide when deciding appropriate skills to incorporate in a sewing wearable or non-wearable article, garment or outfit for exhibit. While this list is a guide, it is not meant to be an all-inclusive list and youth should demonstrate skills they are most comfortable mastering. For example, some youth in a 4th grader might feel comfortable attempting 6th grade level skills, but it is unlikely a 4th grade level exhibitor will be able to successfully master the 10th grade level skills. Exhibited items must demonstrate the minimum skill techniques from their given grade level but may also include higher/lower level techniques that have been mastered. Any higher/lower level techniques will not be counted as part of the minimum skills, but nevertheless will be evaluated for quality. Youth are encouraged to utilize a number of resources such as web sites, print material, social media, and television shows when learning sewing skills and techniques. Skills learned from these types of resources may be demonstrated provided they are age/grade appropriate.

Grade 3 – Demonstrate at least 2 of the following skills:

- Insert elastic or drawstring
- Sew and trim a crotch curve
- Machine topstitch hems
- Use a simple seam finish
- Stitch in the ditch

Grade 4 – Demonstrate at least 2 of the following skills:

- Use interfacing
- Staystitch and understitch
- Apply a facing or binding
- Stitch curved seams
- Trim and grade seams
- Work with fiberfill
- Machine topstitch hems

Seam finishes are recommended on all exposed seams.

Grade 5 – Demonstrate at least 3 of the following skills:

Indiana 4-H Woodworking Tools, Skills and Techniques

Youth and their mentor/volunteer leader/instructor should use this chart as a guide when deciding appropriate tools and skills to use and incorporate in a woodworking exhibit. While this list is a guide, it is not meant to be an all-inclusive list and youth should demonstrate skills they are most comfortable mastering with tools used. For example, some youth in level 2 might feel comfortable attempting level 3 tools/skills, but it is unlikely that a level 1 exhibitor will be able to successfully master the level 4 tools/skills. Youth are encouraged to utilize a number of resources such as web sites, print material, social media, and television shows when learning woodworking skills. Skills learned from these types of resources may be demonstrated provided they are age/grade appropriate.

The "X" indicates suggested level to learn respective skill. Exhibits must include a minimum of 5 techniques from their level indicated in the chart below but may include additional techniques from other levels as deemed appropriate, but nevertheless will be evaluated for quality. For example, Level 3 exhibitors may use any techniques found in Level 1 or Level 2 but the exhibit must include a minimum of 5 Level 3 techniques. Level 4 may use any techniques found in the lower three levels but must have a minimum of 5 Level 4 techniques.

Suggested 4-H Garden Exhibits

What do you exhibit? Check the county 4-H Handbook/Fair Book that your particular 4-H Council suggests for the garden exhibit requirements, because your requirements could differ from these guidelines for the State Fair.

Note: Each of the single-vegetable exhibits contains one type of vegetable and is judged as one class. Example: All tomatoes together, all onions together, and so on.

A collection consists of a group of different vegetables judged as one exhibit. Example: A collection of three might have one plate of tomatoes, one plate of potatoes, and one plate of green beans; a collection of four has four different vegetables; and a collection of five has five different vegetables.

See Table 1, Standards for Preparing 4-H Vegetable Garden Exhibits, on pages 3-7, or check your county 4-H Handbook/Fair Book for the number of vegetables required per plate. Read Table 1 carefully to make sure you display the correct number of specimens and properly prepare them for display. For herb exhibits, see Table 2, Standards for Preparing 4-H Herb Exhibits on page 8.

Now plan your exhibit and do your best!

Produce exhibit (all levels)

Options

- Single plate of vegetables you grew (maximum of five different exhibits).
- Collection of three plates, four plates, or five plates of different vegetables you grew.
- A pot (8-inch maximum) of an herb you grew (maximum of three exhibits).
- Any combination of A, B, or C.

Special activities (judged separately)

Any member may complete the exhibit options below, but members in Levels C and D of the garden project should exhibit one of the following activities in addition to their produce exhibit.

Produce options

- Exhibit four plates containing two cultivars of two different kinds of vegetables from your garden. For example: Display tomato Rutgers and tomato Roma on two plates, and spinach Melody and spinach America on two plates. Label the cultivars you exhibit with the common, Latin, and cultivar names.
- Exhibit and label one unusual vegetable you grew in your garden this year. This vegetable may or may not be discussed in the 4-H garden manuals but should not be listed in the table on the following pages. Examples: spaghetti squash or head lettuce.

Poster options

- Five commonly found diseases in vegetable gardens, the damage each causes, and the control options for each.
- Five commonly found vegetable garden insects: beneficial (good guys) and/or injurious (bad guys), the benefits of or damage caused by each, and the related management practices—how to keep the beneficial and control the injurious insects.
- A maximum of 10 pests—diseases, insects, weeds, and/or rodents—you found in your garden this year, the damage they caused, the control measures you used, and your results.
- Explain a computer garden program or mobile application.
- A picture story of what you did in your garden this year. Example: how you planned, planted, and maintained your garden.
- Show your financial record.
- Pictures showing your experiences in hydroponics.
- Explain various career options that involve working with vegetables and herbs.
- Explain types of pollinators and their importance in vegetable and fruit production.
- Show the different types of plant parts that humans consume. Identify the fruit or vegetable and categorize it by root, stem, leaf, or flower.
- Different storage methods for vegetables.
- How to create a raised bed or container vegetable garden.
- Discuss how the herbs listed on page 8 of this publication are used and have been used throughout history. Include both culinary and medicinal uses as well as other unique uses, if any.

Just for fun, or additional county options (Varies by county)

- Largest (by weight) pumpkin/squash
- Largest (by weight) watermelon
- Largest (by weight) tomato
- Largest (by weight) potato
- Largest (by weight) onion
- Largest (by weight) head of cabbage
- Largest (by diameter) sunflower
- Unusual growth forms

Suggestions for preparing 4-H vegetable garden exhibits

If you choose to display your produce at the county fair, you must have produced all of it in your 4-H project. County fair handbooks and the State Fair Handbook (available at www.in.gov/statefair/fair) for 4-H garden classes give helpful suggestions for exhibiting 4-H garden vegetables. Here are some additional ones.

1. For county fair 4-H garden exhibits, read the rules in your own county 4-H handbook very carefully. Entering too many or too few specimens per plate compared to what your handbook calls for causes the judge to lower your placing. Be sure to read the rules, and follow them.
2. Some “dos” and “don’ts” for exhibiting vegetables (based on common errors noted in judging 4-H garden exhibits at county fairs) include:

Do

- Exhibit exactly the required number of specimens per plate and number of plates per exhibit (see 1, above).
- Label exhibits as required. Your exhibit should include both the common and Latin name.
- Harvest onions two to three weeks before exhibiting. This makes it easier to display clean, attractive specimens. Unpeeled onions are judged more favorably than onions that have been peeled.
- Prevent damage to the skin of vegetables by harsh washing or brushing. If vegetables are dirty—particularly carrots, beets, onions, potatoes, and sweet potatoes—wash them carefully in lukewarm water with a soft cloth or sponge without rubbing. For caked-on dirt, allow vegetables to soak until the dirt can be wiped off. After washing, rinse them in cold water and place on paper towels to dry. For other vegetables, gently wipe off dirt with a soft, moist cloth and allow to dry.
- Keep three to four wrapper leaves on cabbage. A little insect damage on wrapper leaves is okay.

Don’t

- Exhibit large fruits of pickling cultivars of cucumbers as slicing cucumbers, or exhibit very small fruits of slicing cultivars as pickling cucumbers.
 - Cut windows in sweet corn. Instead, determine maturity and freedom from worms by “feeling” the ends of sweet corn and by taking samples for home use the day prior to selecting sweet corn for exhibit.
 - Apply mineral oil or wax to vegetables.
 - Exhibit sunburned vegetables. Slight yellowing of the shoulders of red tomatoes and whitish streaks on green peppers often are due to slight sunburning.
3. Vegetables in a collection exhibit must be of different species (kinds). Cherry tomatoes and large tomatoes are only one species (kind) of a vegetable. Slicing cucumbers and pickling cucumbers are also one species (kind) of vegetable, as are different cultivars (kinds) of peppers. Therefore, if you want to display cherry tomatoes, you must select another vegetable other than tomato for the other plates in your collection exhibit. Placing is lower if two vegetables of the same species are included in the same collection exhibit.

A lot of confusion exists in exhibiting summer squash, pumpkins, and winter squash. Pay close attention to what you grow and what species it is. Note that there are four species of Cucurbita vegetables included in Table 1: Cucurbita pepo, Cucurbita maxima, Cucurbita moschata, and Cucurbita argyros-perma. Collection exhibits can include members from the different species, but not from within a species. For example, if you include a pumpkin (C. pepo) in your collection, you cannot include an acorn squash (C. pepo); you could, however, combine a pumpkin and butternut squash (C. moschata).

4. The overall appearance of vegetables is very important. They must first be fresh, crisp (not wilted), free of any mechanical injuries such as cracks, cuts, or bruises, and free of any damage from insects and diseases. Uniformity is just as important. For example, the closer 10 pods of beans are to the same length and diameter, the better. Exhibits lacking uniformity can be seen at a glance, and the judge might automatically rule out giving a blue or even a red ribbon.
5. When exhibiting herb plants, be sure to grow the plants in the container to be displayed. Plants dug from the garden or transplanted from another container immediately before exhibiting are likely to be in shock and may wilt. Your container should be no larger than 8 inches in diameter.
6. When displaying leaf vegetables—chard, collards, kale, spinach—cut the stems long enough to secure them in a bundle with string or a rubber band. Lay on a plate for judging. Leaf crops likely won’t last long and need to be disposed of soon after judging.

Table 1. Standards for Preparing 4-H Vegetable Garden Exhibits

Vegetable	Latin name	Number of specimens per plate ¹	Size and/or weight specifications	Notes on appearance and maturity characteristics
Asparagus	Asparagus officinalis	5 spears bundled together	Stems approximately 6-8" long and 1/4" to 3/8" in diameter at widest point.	Color is appropriate to cultivar and uniform throughout. Tips should be firm and compact. Not overly mature or "woody." Should snap crisply when bent. You may display cut spears in a shatter-resistant container of water.
Beans (cowpea, black-eyed pea, southern pea, etc.)	Vigna unguiculata subsp. unguiculata	10 pods or 1/2 cup shelled	In pod: pods 1/4" to 1/3" in diameter.	For pod display, select pods uniform in color for variety; should be uniform in size. Shelled cowpeas should be clear of debris and displayed on a plate.
Beans (snap, green, or wax)	Phaseolus vulgaris	10 pods	Pods 1/4" to 1/3" in diameter, 4-1/2" to 8" long.	Uniform, brittle, firm, free of strings; seeds not distinct in pods.
Beans (navy, kidney shell-out, etc.)	Phaseolus vulgaris	1/2 cup shelled	Select tender, plump seeds	Uniform in color by cultivar. Display of uniform size on plate or in shatter-resistant container.
Beans (lima, large or small)	Phaseolus lunatus	10 pods or 1/2 cup shelled	For shelled display select only green, tender, plump seeds of uniform size. Whitish seed indicates overmaturity.	For pod display, select green, firm pods containing at least 3 seeds. Cultivars other than green judged accordingly.
Beets (round, flat, and long types)	Beta vulgaris	3	3/4" to 2-1/4" in diameter.	Firm, not fibrous. Top to 1/2". Trim side roots but not taproot.
Broccoli	Brassica oleracea var. italica	1 head	Minimum head diameter 3".	All buds in head should be firm and tightly closed.
Broccoli raab	Brassica ruvo	3 heads	Stem length varies by cultivar; should be thin, no more than 1/2".	All buds in head should be firm and tightly closed.
Brussels sprouts	Brassica oleracea var. gemmifera	5 heads	Snap cleanly off of stalk, heads should be up to 1" diameter.	Heads should be solid, dense, crisp, and heavy for size. Leave 3-4 wrapper leaves.
Cabbage note: If a powder form of insecticide was used on your cabbage, thoroughly wash and rinse your cabbage deep down inside the leaves to remove any accumulated insecticide. Leave 3-4 wrapper leaves. Minor insect damage is tolerable only on wrapper leaves.
Cabbage (round, flat, and pointed)	Brassica oleracea var. capitata	1 head	Heads to 2 to 5 lbs., round types; 1 to 4 lbs., pointed types; 5 to 12 lbs., flat types.	Heads should be solid, dense, crisp, and green or red in color and must be free of insect damage.
Cabbage (Chinese type – Bok choy or pak choi)	Brassica rapa var. Chinensis	1 head	Appearance similar to celery, petioles and leaves should be 8" to 18" long.	Heads should be compact, dense, crisp, green or white in color, and free of insect damage. Remove soil that may have accumulated at petiole base.
Cabbage (Chinese type – napa cabbage)	Brassica rapa var. pekinensis	1 head	Heads oblong or cylindrical shaped, 8" to 18" long.	Heads should be compact, tightly wrapped, dense, crisp, green or white in color, and free of insect damage.

¹For county fairs, exhibit exactly the amount or number of specimens given in the county 4-H handbook.

Vegetable	Latin name	Number of specimens per plate¹	Size and/or weight specifications	Notes on appearance and maturity characteristics
Carrots (all cultivars)	Daucus carota	3	Size of specimen should be representative of cultivar. Carrots can range from 2" to 7" long.	Bring mature specimens with color appropriate to cultivar (orange, purple, red, white, or yellow); avoid greening on carrot shoulder Top to 1/2". Remove side roots.
