

Hancock County 4-H Livestock Late Arrival and Early Release Animal Form

Once an animal is checked in on the fairgrounds, it will not be allowed to leave the fairgrounds until the time specified in the current fair schedule. Exemptions can be granted by the Species Superintendent for participants who need to arrive late or leave early. However, that permission must be granted prior to the fair. Any 4-Her who chooses to take their 4-H animals home prior to the fair animal release time without following the above stated rule, will incur the following penalty: 4-Hers will not be allowed to participate in the 4-H livestock auction of the current fair and will not be allowed to exhibit in the project at the next year's fair, however will be allowed to enroll in the project and complete their record sheet.

The 4-H Ag Association Board, Livestock Project Superintendents, Livestock Species Committees, and County 4-H Extension Educator are desirous of giving every opportunity to youth to complete their project by exhibiting at the Fair. In those instances where Fair dates conflict with personal schedules and the intended exhibit is an animal, exhibitors should contact their Species Project Superintendent to obtain information regarding possible alternative methods of exhibiting or completing the project year.
