Dear 4-H Supporter,

Jackson County 4-H is excited about our awards program for 2022. There are several categories for support. Distribution of awards is listed below. There is also a category to help support the day to day operating costs for the 4-H Program, 4-H Scholarship Fund, and The Jackson County 4-H Endowment.

Jackson County 4-H General Operating Fund

1. Educational Programming
2. Manuals
3. Volunteer training and support materials
4. Event related expenses (Tractor Contest, Animal ID, Workshops, etc.)
5. Other 4-H Council approved expenses

Jackson County 4-H Endowment

An interest bearing endowment has been set up with the Indiana 4-H Foundation to benefit the Jackson County 4-H Program for years to come. Currently, there is $26,968.63 invested in the account! Only the interest is spent out each year, meaning the funds will support the Jackson County 4-H Program for years to come. You can learn more about the Indiana 4-H Foundation here: <https://www.in4h.org/>.

C.B. Hess Memorial 4-H Scholarship

An interest bearing fund has been established by the 4-H Council to fund college scholarships to qualifying 4-H members completing their senior year in High School.

4-H Building Winners' Circle and Mini T-shirts

1. Mini T-shirts for kindergarten, first, and second grade 4-H exhibitors
2. Grand Champion awards, one per project area, for non-animal projects
3. Cash awards for Grand and Reserve Grand Champion
4. Ten-Year Member Awards

4-H Animal Awards and Winners' Circle

1. Banners in each animal project area for Grand Champion, Reserve Grand Champion, Grand Champion Showmanship, and Champions
2. Ten-Year Member Awards
3. Possible cash awards if funds are available

4-H Clothing Award Fund

Funds are used to offset costs of Clothing Awards, which include specific tools/resources used in sewing.

Please give serious consideration to making this program a success and helping youth of Jackson County "Make the Best Better."

Sincerely,

Mark Spieker, President, Jackson County 4-H Council
Chairman, Awards Committee
