

2023 Livestock Exhibitor Info

*Market animals will NOT be released until Sunday morning, July 23. This includes animals signed up for the auction, out truck, and locker plants. (Insight book, page 16, Item #9 is NOT CORRECT.)

*You are responsible for caring for your animal until it leaves the grounds Sunday morning, July 23. We will have fair-goers in the barns throughout the day and night Saturday.

*Pens MUST be cleaned out during post fair cleanup, which is Sunday, July 23 between 9:00am - 2:00pm.

*Livestock auction will remain early on Friday! Lunch at noon and auction at 2:00 CST on July 21.

*All non-auction animals will be released between 6:00am and noon on Saturday morning, July 22 to go home. These pens can be cleaned Saturday.

*ALL exhibitors must attend the New Indiana Livestock Quality Care class (or YQCA if you show at major shows). Sign up through 4H online. If you do not attend this class, you will NOT be able to show at the county or state fair.

If you have any questions, please contact the Extension Office at 219-866-5741 or Peyton Newman at newman84@purdue.edu.
