Possibly having the test during demo or even at the beginning of the fair. The committee asked for more information and tabled this topic until a later committee meeting.

Old Business:

Update on the Mock Show The practice show information is being sent to Kasey so that a registration link can be created. Once that information has been shared by the extension office, it will be shared on the H&P Facebook page. The show is Sunday May 18 at the Navajo Saddle Club in Kouts. Show starts at 9 am. Due to a lack of a sponsor, the t-shirt proposal was put on hold.

Update on Jumping clinics The first jumping clinic will be following the practice show on May 18. Once that information has been shared by the extension office, it will be shared on the H&P Facebook page. You must register on the separate link for the jumping clinic.

Update on T-Shirt Fundraiser Fliers will be posted by Kasey and once they are they will be shared on the H&P Facebook Page. $12 per shirt, encouraging everyone to support this fundraiser, and wear their shirts during the fair.

New Business:

Fair Schedule 2025 The 2025 Fair schedule was shared out. The main change was that each class now has a class number so that it is easier to follow and know which class is currently showing in the arena.

Lake County 4-H Horse and Pony Project deadlines. May 15 is the deadline for animal ID and uploading of the 4-H vet forms. Approximately the end of May, fair entry will open and participants may register for classes for fair. The deadline to register for the fair classes is July 1.

Tenure awards will be donated again this year, just need a list of seniors.
