RE: Scholarships Available

Lula Boone Scholarship – deadline March 1, 2022

This $1,000.00 scholarship is named in honor of the first Extension Homemaker County President, Mrs. Glen Boone.

Selection will be made on financial need and scholarship. A committee of homemakers will make the selection.

Applicants for the LULA BOONE SCHOLARSHIP must:

- Live in Madison County and be either a 2022 graduating senior or 2021 high school graduate.
 - Enrolled in an accredited college or vocational school in the field of Health & Human Sciences in the fall of 2022 which could include Child Development, Hotel & Restaurant Management, Fashion Design, Dietetics, Nursing, or any related area.
- * Note: No age limitation.

Money will be given to student after first semester of grades are submitted to HHS Educator. Money may be used for anything the person needs during the first or second year in school.

Enclosed you will find a pink application blank. Please contact me if you need more application blanks.

*If the applicant is enrolling in a Health & Human Sciences related field, they are urged to submit a copy of the application to the Lula Boone Scholarship chairman for consideration of that award made locally.

Sincerely,

Danielle Scott
