Hello!

Happy IEHA Week! I hope everyone has had a great week so far, there's still Saturday to go for IEHA week!

A big THANK YOU to all of those that could help this week for Make A Difference Day, Giving Day, Noodles, and distribution day of the hygiene kits. The help has been appreciated and the community has benefited from everyone working together to achieve so much!

Keep a look out for the upcoming Holiday Program flyer! November 14th will be the program and share, invite, and bring some friends, should be a great program!

I hope everyone has a wonderful weekend!

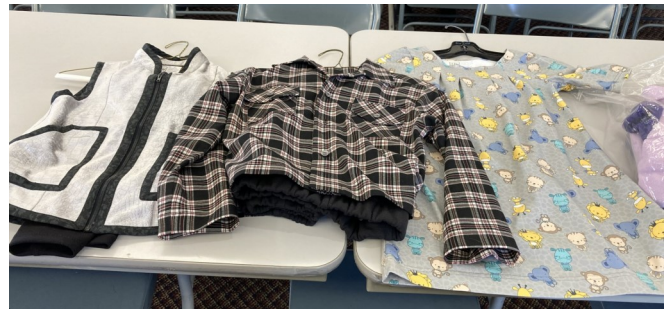

Have a great day,

Amy

Sew Club:

Sewing washcloths for hygiene kits and stuffing kits. Sew club went on to sew scarves (put pockets on scarves), for schools. Our New people took home ,cancer seatbelt covers and made 26 covers and 9 breast pillows that will be delivered to Mooresville Franciscan health cancer center. Terri brought in 4 outfits and a dress, which was delivered to Desert Rose.–

IEHA WEEK

Making A Difference in our community!

Thank you for helping Make A Difference with 100+ hygiene rolls!

Toothbrush, toothpaste, comb, shampoo, soap, & laundry detergent!

This hygiene roll was made for you by Morgan County Extension Homemakers. It is our hope that you will find it useful, you know that someone cares, and it brings a little magic to you!

www.ieha-families.org

The hygiene rolls were distributed today! Great way to celebrate IEHA by helping the community!

Mission Statement:

To strengthen families through continuing education, leadership development, and volunteer community support.

You are amazing! The way you make people laugh, lift others up, or spread some extra love. You do this even though you are struggling, too, and it makes you a beautiful human being. Never lose sight of who you are.

HOLIDAY PROGRAM

November 14th

Blessings Luncheon

Keep your eye out for more information!!

Looking forward to 2025!!

The special project for Home & Family Conference 2025 will be a single placemat. Guidelines: up to 14 x 20 inches is the maximum, however, you can make it smaller. It can be rectangle, oval, round just as long as it is not over 14 x 20. You can use any medium you like: plastic canvas, crochet, knit, quilting, whatever you desire. There is so much talent out there! The committee hopes to see a lot of creativity!!

NOODLE DAY!

We were small in numbers, but mighty in workmanship. Debbie Thompson, Tura LaMar, Sheila Puckett, Marilyn Cullen and Helen Smith. 72 eggs, a gallon of milk, little salt and 30 pounds flour yielding 44 - 12oz bags of delicious egg noodles!

MARTINSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

8:00 am – 1:00 pm (rain or shine)

MORGAN COUNTY RESIDENTS ONLY

Businesses are not included (due to the volume of material); they may call NuGenesis at 800-487-1010 to make other arrangements.

SHREDDING SERVICES WILL NOT BE AT THIS EVENT!

MeCAP (Martinsville Environmental Community Action Project) along with Purdue, IU, and UIC is hosting a TOWN HALL meeting October 30th at 7:00 pm in the MHS auditorium to discuss findings from their completed research project of children ages 6-11 and discuss an ongoing current project that includes adults. These findings are important to community health decisions.

Acorn Candy Cookies

- 1 tablespoon prepared chocolate frosting
- 24 milk chocolate candy kisses (such as Hershey's Kisses), unwrapped
- 24 mini vanilla wafer cookies (such as Nilla)
- 24 butterscotch chips

Smear a small amount of frosting onto flat bottom of 1 candy kiss; press onto flat bottom of 1 vanilla wafer cookie. Smear a small amount of frosting onto flat bottom of 1 butterscotch chip; press onto rounded top of same cookie. Repeat with remaining frosting, candy kisses, wafer cookies, and butterscotch chips. Set aside to dry, about 30 minutes.

Mandarin Pumpkins

- 10 mandarin or clementine oranges, peeled, pith removed
- 2 stalks celery

Cut celery into small pieces and stick a piece of celery into the middle of each peeled mandarin orange.

Popular Halloween Costumes through the years

1950: Cowboy: When most people think of the 1950s, they imagine a poodle skirt or leather jacket. But what was the go-to costume in 1950? A good ol' cowboy. Hollywood had an obsession with Westerns at the time. From John Wayne to Gene Autry to Roy Rogers, young boys and men alike had found their heroes, and that was reflected on Halloween night.

1955: Davy Crockett: Everyone's favorite frontiersman was a Halloween staple of the mid-1950s. Boys (and men) everywhere were charmed by Davy Crockett, especially after the Disney series aired from 1954 to 1955 and Davy Crockett: King of the Wild Frontier hit theaters in 1955.

1960: Hula girl: To say that Americans were fascinated with Hawaii in the '50s and '60s would be an understatement. South Pacific making waves on Broadway and in theaters and Hawaii officially becoming the 50th U.S. state on August 21, 1959, grass skirts, Hawaiian shirts, silk flowers and tiki bars took the country—and Halloween—by storm.

1965: Sonny and Cher: "They say we're young and we don't know," but we do know that Sonny Bono and Cher were a legendary duo that Halloween revelers wanted to emulate—especially when "I Got You Babe" topped the charts in 1965. When one half of a couple donned a long, black Cher wig and dressed in her over-the-top style and the other half opted for Sonny's bushy mustache and shaggy hair, there was no doubt who they were dressed as.

1966: Barbie

1969: Astronaut

1970: Elvis Presley

1971: Willy Wonka

1976: Charlie's Angels

1977: Star Wars

1979: Rocky Balboa

1980: John Travolta

1981: Indiana Jones

1982: E.T.

1989: Ghostbusters

1990: Marty McFly
