

PURDUE EXTENSION NOBLE COUNTY

4-H Goat Worksheets

Grade 3-B

Name: _____

4-H Club: _____

Leader Signature: _____

Date: _____

Caring for Your Animals

Your duty as a 4-H member is to properly care for your animals. You need to understand the privileges, responsibilities, and rewards that you can expect from the 4-H program.

1. Determine if the following 5 statements are:

P – Privilege

R – Responsibility

W – Reward

- _____ To be willing to learn/participate in training programs/meetings.
- _____ To make new friends and have fun.
- _____ To be given experiences relating to project work.
- _____ To feel good about producing a wholesome, consumable product.

2. Match the Following:

_____ Doe

_____ Kid

_____ Kidding Ease

_____ Buck

_____ Wether

A. Lack of difficulty in giving birth.

B. A castrated male kid.

C. A female goat.

D. An intact male goat.

E. A young goat less than 6 months of age.

3. When giving medication to market animals, it is important to follow _____ times.

4. You should always check with your ___ before administering medication to your goat. A. Brother B. Stuff Animal "Bob" C. Veterinarian

5. What does "withdrawal time" refer to?

6. When administering medication to your goats, it is vital to use _____ needles and syringes and keep bottles and bottle caps _____.

7. All goats need to be taught to use a lead and to be set up. This training needs to start several _____ before showing.

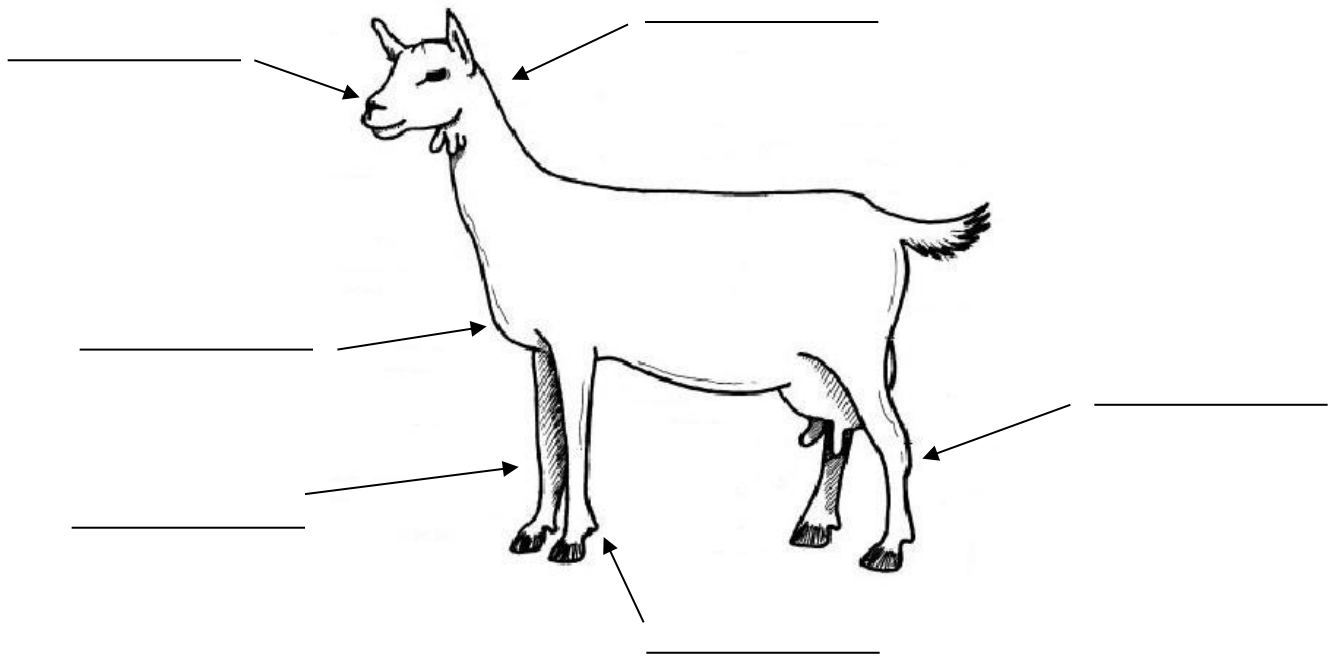

8. When showing your goat:

Always keep one eye on your _____ and one eye on the judge.

Keep the animal between you and the _____.

Keep enough distance between _____ and the animal in front of you.

9. Label the following:

10. ID the following Breeds of Goats:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

