

Scott County Club list

These clubs are general – Mini and regular 4-H'ers can attend their meetings:

- 4-H Impact Club – general 4-H club led by Bobbie Foster
- Finley Fantastics – general 4-H club that meets at the Saddle club building, led Stacey Niccum and Kelsey Hough
- Vienna Fighting Farmers – general 4-H club that meets at the saddle club building, led by Tonia Richey and Sue Smith
- Austin 4-H Club – general 4-H Club that meets at Austin High School after school, led by Keith Groenenboom

Club for Mini 4-H'ers only:

- Future of 4-H – MINI 4-H club led by Amanda Reardon, meeting place still TBD

Specialty clubs – Mini and regular 4-H'ers can attend meeting but Mini's cannot participate in all activities:

- 4-H Shooting Sports – meets at the Conservation Club and learns how to safely handle firearms and archery equipment, Led by several certified instructors
- Dog Obedience – meets at the fairgrounds usually March – June, Led by Cheryl Foster
- Happy Humming Alpaca Club – meets at the Alpaca owners farm and works with the alpacas, Led by Robbie & Heather Combs and Tony Vance
- Rough Riders – Horse and Pony 4-H club that meets at the fairgrounds and works with their horses, Led by an Adult team - contact person is Kathy Watson
- Hare & Feathers Small Animal 4-H Club – meets at the fairgrounds and works with small animals (rabbits & poultry), Led by Ron White and Troy Leep
- 4-H Robotics – no leader at this time

Club for 7th-12th graders:

- Scott County Jr. Leaders – for youth in grades 7-12, focuses on community service, led by Megan McNeely