

Olivia Fugate

Olivia is the daughter of Jeannie & Stacey Fugate and a sister to Sadie and Maddox. She is a 10 year 4-H member of the Vienna Fighting Farmers 4-H club.

Projects that Olivia has completed include cake decorating, arts & crafts, corn, soybeans and jewelry making.

Her favorite project was cake decorating because it was crafty and edible. She likes to put her skills to use by making birthday cakes for her friends and family.

Olivia has volunteered in the community by helping with kiddie farm tours and a petting zoo for a local nursing home through FFA. She also volunteers through the American Martyrs Catholic Church by participating in the service with reading and altar service, as well as with Bingo on Tuesdays.

Olivia has earned several awards through her high school tennis team, FFA and bronze, silver and gold medals for her academic excellence. She received a Lions Club scholarship, Beth Anne Thompson Church fund, Dale McNeely Scholarship, Knights of Columbus scholarship and an IUPUI Academic Scholarship. Olivia plans to attend IUPUI studying biology while on the Pre-Med track this fall.
