

SHELBY COUNTY AGRICULTURAL PROMOTION COMMITTEE

RENEWABLE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Shelby County Agricultural Promotion Committee is a consortium of agricultural business and organizations whose purpose is to promote the tremendous role agriculture plays in Shelby County, Indiana. This is a $500 renewable scholarship up to 4 years. Provided the student provides proof of enrollment, this scholarship has a combined value up to $2000.

The Shelby County Agricultural Promotion Committee is pleased to announce the awarding of scholarships to individuals pursuing further education in an area related to or associated with agricultural, environmental and consumer sciences, business, education, industry or the food and nutrition areas.

Scholarship recipients may apply to renew their scholarship for no more than four years of undergraduate work if they remain in good standing with their University, College or Trade school and the Shelby County Ag Promotion Committee is financially able to continue with the scholarships.

Scholarships will be awarded at the “Taste of Shelby County Agriculture” Event on Wednesday, March 4th, 2026. Scholarship recipients will be awarded their scholarship money once they have submitted a tuition bill, housing fee, or book receipt to the Shelby County Agricultural Promotion Committee Treasurer, Jan Theobald, at 3042 W. Boggstown Road, Shelbyville, IN 46176.

Please complete the form, essay and return it by February 13th, 2026 to the Shelby County Extension Office, 20 West Polk Street, Ste. 201, Shelbyville, IN 46176. For additional information regarding this scholarship or digital submission, please contact the Shelby County Extension Office at: 317-392-6460 or shelbyces@purdue.edu .
