

Tippecanoe County Extension Homemakers First Timer Award

One Scholarship/Award is offered by the Tippecanoe County Extension Homemakers to attend Home and Family Conference. Only those who have never attended the entire conference will be considered. The Award will cover his/her expenses up to $125. This scholarship is offered to members of the Tippecanoe County Extension Homemakers

Guidelines:

- Applicant will attend the entire Conference
- Applications must be received at the Extension Office by March 1
- Entries will be judged by County Scholarship committee
- Winners will be notified in time to register for the Home and Family Conference
- First Timer Award winner will be excepted to give a short report at a County program in the Fall.

Applicant Information:

Name _____ Club _____

Address

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____ Email _____

The application will consist of this page and a short essay of 200 words or less on the topic "Why I Want to Attend Home and Family Conference". Please also share how you have benefited from being an Extension Homemaker member.

The Tippecanoe County First Timer Award winner will be submitted by the Scholarship Committee to District for consideration for the District First Timer Award. In the event the Tippecanoe County First Timer Award winner is selected as District winner, the first Tippecanoe County runner-up will be awarded the Tippecanoe County First Timer Award. If we have no applicants, or only one applicant for the award who then wins the District Award, the money will remain in the County treasury.

The Tippecanoe County First Timer award winner (not the District winner) will submit his/her Home and Family Conference Registration confirmation to the Tippecanoe County Treasurer for the $125 reimbursement.