2	20
3	20
4	5
5	10
6	10
7	25

- For Laurenz Greene Memorial Excellence in 4-H Horticulture and Landscape Architecture – The questions are the same as the State 4-H Foundation Senior Scholarship Form.

Suggestions for Completing

- Reminder people remember what they read first and last.
- Question 1 - I would put your project with the greatest number of years first.
- Questions 2 – 4 – Form states - List in chronological order with 1st year first.
- Question 2 - Remember Performing Arts (Talent Contest), Judging CDE such as Livestock, Soils, Skillathon; plus Local = club.
- Question 3 – Include offices and committees. Some examples might be: float, fund-raising, mini workshop, barrel painting, recreation, picnic, etc. Be sure to list Chaired Committee for the committees that you chaired. Otherwise put Committee Member. NOTE: List in chronological order with 1st year first.
- Question 4 - For awards / trips - include: all trips out of the County (Round-Up, 4-H Academy, 4-H Camp, Junior Leader Conference) and County Achievement Awards (given in Sept.) NOTE: List in chronological order.
- Question 5 - Be sure to cover Leadership, Community Service and Citizenship. Use power verbs and give results. WOW statements make an impression. Bold the topics – Leadership, Citizenship and Community Service so that it is obvious that you covered them.
- Question 6 – Be sure to list life skills. (See life skills list in Accomplishment Scholarship packet.) Bold your life skills.
- Question 7 – Describe how you will use the life skills gained in the future (college and career).
- Each team reads hundreds of forms. Thus, make sure yours is:
 - neat,
 - spelling is correct;
 - filled in completely;
 - correct number of pages. However, use all of the pages possible (maximum 3 pages for Questions 1 – 7.)
 - submitted electronically in one electronic file. Contact Extension Office if you need assistance with formatting or saving into 1 electronic file.

NOTE: Minimum font size is 10.
