

Parents Forever

Education to aid families in transition after divorce, separation, or custody change

Families face many challenges and sometimes have to deal with transitions. Parents Forever © is an educational program for families experiencing divorce, separation, or a change in child custody; developed by the University of Minnesota Extension's Center for Family Development and adopted for use by Purdue Extension for Indiana residents.

For parents filing in Warrick County:

Classes are available online AND in-person

To Register visit these links:

Online Course: www.purduecoparenting.org

In-Person Classes: <https://bit.ly/ParentsForever2023>

(NOTE: In-Person classes are held monthly at various locations in surrounding counties)

By completing a Parents Forever course, participants learn to:

- Describe the family transition journey and how each family member will be affected.
- Recognize the role of self-care, parent-child relationships, and co-parenting in child well-being.
- Identify internal and external resources and strategize how to leverage these resources to promote resilience for all involved.
- Course fee is $50 per person
- Certificate of Completion is issued at end of course

For Questions, additional information, or if you are in need of accommodations to attend this program, please contact Extension Educator Jo Gilreath prior to registration at 812-897-6100.

It is the policy of the Purdue University Cooperative Extension Service that all persons have equal opportunity and access to its educational programs, services, activities, and facilities without regard to race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin or ancestry, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, disability or status as a veteran. Purdue University is an Affirmative Action institution. This material may be available in alternative formats.