

CLUBS

SERVE  GROW  THRIVE  MAKE  SERVE  GROW  THRIVE  MAKE

4 Leaf Stars Club Leaders: Duretta McKee, Michele Miller, Hailey Miller

Meeting Location: Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are a general club that goes over helpful information for primarily building projects. We always do some type of craft or activity at each one of our meetings. We also play games, have a cookout and tie-dye at our last meeting, which is a big hit.

4-H Shamrocks 4-H Club Club Leaders: Jennifer Davis, Kara Andrews

Meeting Location: First Bank Kuhlman Building, Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are a homeschool 4-H club. All homeschool 4-H'ers are welcome as members are involved in projects from Livestock to Arts & Crafts. There is a private group for communications that parents should reach out to join.

Boston Clever Clovers 4-H Club Club Leaders: Cindy Elzemeyer, Tracey Freeman

Meeting Location: Boston Methodist Church

We are a diverse 4-H club that welcomes both mini and regular 4-H members from rural and urban backgrounds. Members engage in a wide range of activities, from building projects to raising livestock animals. With a strong emphasis on community service, the club dedicates itself to completing at least two community projects annually to benefit Wayne County and give back to the local community.

Centerville Barnyard Busters Club Leaders: Haley & Jeremy Spears, Traci & Ryan Gehlhausen

Meeting Location: First Bank Kuhlman Building, Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are primarily a Centerville area club, but we have members from other areas of Wayne County too. We have members who are involved in walking and non-walking projects.....many members who do both!

Central Cardinals Club Leaders: Caryn & Kyle Sebring, Shelby Bertsch

Meeting Location: Milton Christian Church

We are a general club located in the Cambridge City area, with most of our 4-H'ers coming from Cambridge, Dublin, Milton and Pershing. Our members are involved in not only animal projects but Kuhlman center projects. We welcome anyone and everyone who wants to be a member of a great program where kids can learn responsibility and the power of working together.

CLUBS

SERVE  GROW  THRIVE  MAKE  SERVE  GROW  THRIVE  MAKE

Color Guard

Club Leaders: Emma Ullery, Dustin Lanman, Ann Lochotzki

Business Meeting Location: First Bank Kuhlman Building, Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

Riding Meeting Location: Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are a 4-H Horse & Pony Drill Team. The team presents the flags at the opening of every horse & pony show, provides an entertaining performance set to music, and also participates in local parades and open shows. The Color Guard is a “specialty” club, which doesn’t work on showman skills used in the county fair competition classes and therefore can be an additional club to any primary horse & pony club of your choosing.

First Friends

Club Leaders: Joy Maupin, Chrystal Albright

Meeting Location: Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are primarily a Kuhlman Center projects club, although we have had members in our club in addition to their animal club. We try to do a project or activity at each meeting, such as sand art, ceramics, baskets, etc. For community service, we usually make fleece tie blankets and donate them to various groups. We have members who are primarily from Centerville and Richmond.

Franklin Fliers

Club Leaders: Vanessa Summitt, Trisha Thomas

Meeting Location: Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are a club of a mix of members that show animals and complete non-walking projects. We normally have a younger group of members who attend, so we try to do hands on activities that fit all ages and cover presentation of projects and how to complete some of them. We try to have educational or community service components at meetings.

Friendly Workers

Club Leaders: Sharon Brooks, Carole Robbins

Meeting Location: Carole Robbins’ home

We are general 4-H club that primarily focuses on building projects, but some exhibit livestock.

Harrison Farmers

Club Leaders: Tim & Angie Fagan, Samantha Mitchell

Meeting Location: Jacksonburg Christian Church

We are club with a mix of animal and building project members, with a larger emphasis on livestock, that meets centrally for Hagerstown, Cambridge City, Greens Fork, and Centerville.

Hoosier Horsemen Club Leaders: Kim Moore, Makaela Moore, Traci Fletcher, Kellie Riggott

Business & Riding Meeting Location: Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are horse & pony club that shows mostly Western, Hunt Seat, Dressage & Over Fences, with some in contesting. We typically have a money-making project to help purchase Club T-Shirts for all members to wear during activities. Our club has a pizza party during the fair and a Christmas Party each year. We encourage our members to give demonstrations and be active in our club.

For more information, call (765) 973-9281 or email combs30@purdue.edu

CLUBS

SERVE  GROW  THRIVE  MAKE  SERVE  GROW  THRIVE  MAKE

Junior Leaders Club Leader: Kendell Wolfe

Meeting Location: First Bank Kuhlman Building, Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are a leadership club open to 4-H'ers grades 7-12 that focuses on community service and member's personal development. At our monthly meetings, we complete a community service project and enjoy dinner together. Our members assist at the fair and other 4-H events, being an example of pledging their "Hands to Larger Service." This is to be additional to your primary club.

Loyal Haymakers Club Leaders: Danielle Baumer, Lori Snyder

Meeting Location: varies at Leaders' homes

We are 4-H Club is based out of Centerville but are open to all Wayne County members. Our members' projects vary from Lego's to livestock and just about everything in between, as we encourage all members to pursue whatever it is that they feel is most aligned with their personal interests. We don't dive too deeply into specific projects during meetings but are happy to support each member in whatever way that we can as questions arise. We have some form of entertainment to build comradery at each meeting, mixing Mini4-H'ers with older members.

Milton Huskies Club Leaders: Brandi & Stephen Myers, Kaitlyn Lacey

Meeting Location: Lincoln High School Ag Room

We are a small group that range from first Minis to 10-year members. The talents and interests of this club range from basket making and photography to crops and electric. Many of our members are also very active in the show arena. At our meetings, we familiarize ourselves with 4-H and what it stands for, conduct informational time for members with upcoming events and deadlines, and take part in group activities and games. We ask that all members take part in one community service project a year.

Outlaws Club Leaders: Michelle Hickel, Terry Hollingsworth, Don Wood, Connie Wood, Teresa Wright

Business Meeting Location: First Bank Kuhlman Building, Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

Riding Meeting Location: Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are a horse & pony club that focuses on showmanship. We then saddle up and ride, depending on the activity we are working on. We do set up barrels and jumps if needed after others are done working. During riding meetings, our club provides hotdogs, and everyone is asked to bring something to share.

CLUBS

SERVE  GROW  THRIVE  MAKE  SERVE  GROW  THRIVE  MAKE

Rough Riders Club Leaders: Bruce & Ann Lochotzki, Abby & Dylan Muse, Austin Lochotzki

Business Meeting Location: New Testament Church, Hagerstown

Riding Meeting Location: Cambridge City arena

We are a horse & pony club that has been primarily focused on trail and contesting in the past few years. We also stress the fundamentals of showmanship and horsemanship. We have our members actively participate in the meetings and we have become more like family. Our club had a trail ride at Whitewater State Park this past year and hope to make this an annual event. We welcome any new families who would like to become a part of the great group of members and parents.

Sharp Shooters Club Leaders: Tom & Randi Robeson, Aaron Buckland, Joe Elstro, Bryce Reagan

Safety Meeting Location: Old Trails Rifle and Pistol Club, Richmond

Shooting Meeting Location: Richmond Conservation Club

We are a shooting sports club that teaches safe operation of firearms and archery equipment. Disciplines include archery, rifle, shotgun, muzzleloader and pistol.

Tailwaggers Club Leaders: Hollie LaBoyteaux, Shannon Rivas

Safety Meeting Location: First Bank Kuhlman Building, Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

Practice Meeting Location: Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are dog club that offers obedience (everyone that signs up has to participate in), showmanship (where you dress up and show your dog off), and agility (where you and your dog cut loose and have fun running obstacles). Members will learn how to teach your dog everything they need to know, like sit, stay, down, recall on command, and so much more. This is for 4-H'ers and dogs to bond and practice training techniques.

Tiger Tribe Club Leaders: Jeff Waterman, Courtney Early

Meeting Location: Hagerstown Elementary Cafeteria

We are club based out of Hagerstown where students from there attend. We have members who primarily participate in building projects, but we also have some who are active in animal projects. well. Our leaders have many years of experience and will help in any way we can.

CLUBS

SERVE  GROW  THRIVE  MAKE  SERVE  GROW  THRIVE  MAKE

Udder Kaos 4-H Goat Club Club Leaders: Greg & Amber Morford, Pam Tidrow, Lisa Crossley, Taylor Crossley

Meeting Location: First Bank Kuhlman Building, Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are a 4-H club for kids who show meat and dairy goats (though kids who show other species or do non-walking projects are welcome to join.) We strive to help our members learn how to be better goat showmen and women, but also educate them about goat health and husbandry as well. If you love goats as much as we do, come join us as we learn and have fun together.

Wayne County Rabbit Club Club Leaders: Hailey Hicks, Jessica Knight

Meeting Location: Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are a rabbit club for all ages K-12. We have members from various towns and school districts. At our club meetings, we go over anything from t-shirts for the club or activities to learn more about rabbits. These meetings also go over what the kids need to be prepared for during Fair Week and how the show will be as well. We are going to start having meetings for kids interested in or doing showmanship and ambassador to practice and learn more about this topic. There are meetings that we encourage kids to bring their rabbits to these meetings so that if there are any questions or concerns, they can have that interaction with guidance with the rabbit.

Wayne County Tractor Club Club Leaders: Steve Meyer, Mike Meyer, Jerry Snowden, Joe McFarland, Gary Rushton, Jeremey Geerts

Meeting Location: Wayne Co. Fairgrounds

We are a club focused on gaining insight about proper operation, safety, and maintenance of tractors, farm equipment, lawn mowers, chainsaws, and other engine-powered tools through instructional and hands-on training. Members will learn various parts and components of tractors and lawn mowers. Members will also have the opportunity to learn to drive and perform in an obstacle course.

Webster Wonder Workers Club Leaders: Amy Fouche, Matthew & Stephanie Oden

Meeting Location: Webster Firehouse

We are a small club with young members, with a mixture of 4-H'ers that show and that have Kuhlman Center projects. We work on how to run meetings, elections, job duties, and supporting members. Most of our club attends Northeastern, but we would love for memebers to join from other schools too so that we can help educate what 4-H means to us.
