New to forest land ownership?
Not sure where to start?
Where can you get help?
Maybe you have had the land for a while but want to learn more and improve it.
Thinking of selling timber?
Want to improve wildlife habitat?

Then join the thousands of forest landowners who have taken this class held annually in Indiana since 1981.

This class covers a full range of topics related to forestland ownership and stewardship and is taught by foresters, wildlife biologists and natural resource professionals.

It is the policy of the Purdue University Cooperative Extension Service that all persons have equal opportunity and access to its educational programs, services, activities and facilities without regard to race, religion, color, sex, age national origin or ancestry, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, disability or status as a veteran.
