

NEW WORKPLACE MENTAL HEALTH EDUCATION PROGRAM

Extension

NEED A BRIEF INTRODUCTORY PROGRAM FOR WORKPLACE MENTAL HEALTH AND WELLNESS?

INTRODUCING

Compassion & Resilience
Education at Work

WHAT CREW IS

- Professional development for current employees
- Three session topics that can be offered as standalone one-hour sessions or as a series:
 - ▶ Work-Life Balance
 - ▶ Stress Management
 - ▶ Stigma Reduction
- Activity and discussion-driven content

WHY EXTENSION PROFESSIONALS NEED CREW

- It is a short, adaptable program based in research
- It can help foster recovery-friendly work environments
- It includes session instructor guides, marketing templates, program delivery checklists, and evaluation instruments

WHY WORKPLACES NEED CREW

As concerns about mental health and substance use rise in the United States, many workplaces want new education and resources for employee mental health and well-being. Work cultures often struggle to overcome long-held stigmas about mental health to address it effectively.

WHAT EMPLOYEES GAIN

- Understanding for terms and concepts related to mental health, stress, wellness, and stigma
- Skills and tools to monitor and address work-life balance and stress
- Skills and tools to reduce stigma around mental health and substance use
