Dear 4-H Sewing Member:

The 4-H Fashion Revue is an educational activity for those 4-H members enrolled in the Sewing Project. It is an optional activity.

Fashion Revue places emphasis on selecting, constructing, accessorizing, and modeling garments which compliment the participant and fit well with the total wardrobe.

Judging

Both Junior and Senior participants have the opportunity to be judged (Mini Members WILL NOT be judged).

Tuesday, July 6, 2021
Allen County Extension Office
Registration begins at 4:30pm and judging will be on a first-come first-served basis.

Due to decreasing numbers, we will not have a public Fashion Revue during the Allen County Fair this year. Youth enrolled in the senior division are still eligible for competition at the Indiana State Fair.

When you check in your sewing items at the Fair, please bring them in a clear plastic garment bag. Dry cleaner bags are fine.

Each sewing entry MUST have one (1) Sewing Exhibit Card attached, regardless of number of articles. You will need a separate card for wearable and non-wearable exhibits. The card is available on our website at www.extension.purdue.edu/allen. Hover over 4-H Youth Development, then click 4-H Projects – Allen County, then Sewing, then your grade and you will see the Sewing Exhibit Cards in the same link with the record sheet for your grade.

Please read the enclosed information carefully. Refer to the Allen County 4-H Rules Book Sewing section for a description of Divisions/Categories. Senior Division, outfit must be complete specific to your category, see the Allen County 4-H Rules Book. If you have additional questions, contact your 4-H leader or the County Extension Office at 481-6826.

Sincerely,

Samm Johnson
