PROJECT DESCRIPTION:

Use your creative wrapping ideas to make that present an extra special treat! Members participating in this project can use their imaginations and creativity to design their own gift-wrap. All of the packages exhibited should fit a central theme. 4-H members will be judged upon neatness and creativity. Packages for exhibit MUST not contain articles.

EXHIBIT: Carroll County's definition of a box - Boxes can be either commercially made or individually created. They must be made of cardboard and be able to contain a present. Boxes must be wrapped with paper. You are not to decorate the boxes as wrapping paper.

Beginner (Grades 3-5):

1. A. Exhibit two wrapped boxes of different shapes (i.e.: rectangle, square, cylinder). Include self-made bows. Commercial wrapping paper may be used. OR
 B. Decorate a purchased solid colored gift bag. Size to be at least 8" x 8". Use at least two methods of decoration (paint, paper, ribbon, yarn, etc.) Specify the occasion.
2. Completed record sheet must be exhibited with your packages. Be sure to attach a 1" x 5" sample of your paper on the back of your record sheet.

Intermediate (Grades 6-8):

1. A. Exhibit two wrapped boxes - one box which is cylinder shaped. You may use solid color gift-wrap but the design on the paper must be your own creation. No commercial bows are allowed. OR
 B. Make a hand made paper bag. Size to be at least 8" x 8". Using wrapping paper, newspaper, or mailing paper. Decorate for a specific occasion. Specify the occasion.
2. Completed record sheet must be exhibited with your packages. Be sure to attach a 1" x 5" piece of your paper to the back of the record sheet.

Advanced (Grades 9-12):

1. Exhibit three or more packages of different shapes (not just different sizes) including combined shapes. One package must be a cylindrical shape. Bows are not required if the bows are not in keeping with the design. 4-H'er must design own wrapping paper.
2. Completed record sheet must be exhibited with your packages. Be sure to attach a 1" x 5" piece of your paper to the back of the record sheet.
