4-H vegetable Garden Record

Level B, Let's Get Growing

Name ____

Name of my club	Number of years in 4-H garden project
Date I started this record Date I completed this record
You should complete six activities each year so t In the first year, complete the activities listed un In the second year, complete the activities listed
Write in the month, day, and year you completed	each of the activities.
YEAR 1	YEAR 2
Plant a Transplant	Wiggly Farm Acres
Plan It Bigger	Let It Rot
On the Move	One of a Kind
Starting from Scratch	Too Much to Eat
A-Maze-ing Plants	On Your Own
More Than Seeds	What's in a Name?

Age _

Answer the following questions:	YEAR 1	YEAR 2
Kind of garden I had (ground or container)
Size of my garden (length x width in feet, or container size)
Kind of soil in my garden (sandy, clay, sandy loam, much, or other)
Soil preparations I did myself (plow, spade, rake, etc.)
Kind of mulch I used (grass clippings, etc.)
Total number of hours I worked on my garden project
Percentage of the work I did myself (100%, 75%, 50%, or 25%)
People who helped me with my garden

What three new skills did you develop in this project?
,
	·
Vhat did you learn about transplanting cultivars from this project?
Vhat are some things you learned about careers in horticulture?
escribe which garden practices you will use again in next year's garden. What will you do differentl	y?
hat problem(s) did you have with your garden? How did you try to solve the problem(s)?
hat resources were useful to you in your garden project?
st other activities you completed, such as garden tours, workshops, meetings, demonstrations, etc.
st three ways you helped your family by doing this project:
	· L.
	/hat are some things you learned about careers in horticulture? escribe which garden practices you will use again in next year's garden. What will you do differentl That problem(s) did you have with your garden? How did you try to solve the problem(s)?

Signature of leader