

JOHNSON COUNTY 4-H SCHOLARSHIPS & AWARDS

(1) Johnson County Beef Cattle Association Scholarship – In Memory of Harold Fulp

Who: Johnson County 4-H member who has participated in the 4-H beef project and shown beef the last 5 years of their 4-H career. Dairy beef project also qualifies. Must be a current high school graduate or in their last year of 4-H and accepted in a continuing education program the following fall. Scholarship(s) will be presented at the Johnson County Fair. You may only apply one time.

Selection Criteria: Must present proof of acceptance to college, technical or trade school. Please include a paragraph about your involvement in the beef project and how this will help you in the future plans. You must also work at least one shift in the ribeye building at the county fair, the year you apply.

Application Due Date: June 30

Donor: Johnson County Beef Cattle Association

2) Johnson County Fair Board Scholarship

What: One $250 scholarship

Who: This scholarship was established in 2008 by members of the Johnson County Fair Board. The wish of the board members were to recognize and reward a 4-H member pursuing higher education in addition to being an outstanding 10 Year 4-H member. Students may apply who are accepted into and are planning to attend an accredited two or four year public or private institutions of high learning. Students must be a 10 year 4-H member who demonstrates good moral character and leadership during his or her 4-H career.

Application Due: June 30

Donor: Johnson County Fair Board

Must apply with Common Application through

www.jccf.org

(3) Ken Davis Memorial Scholarship

What: One $200 scholarship

Who: Johnson County 4-H member that is a high school graduate or completing 1st year of college in computer technology program. Must be enrolled as a full time or part time student in a two-year college or technical school majoring in computer programs or technology. A completed application form with essay question answered, transcript, attendance record and proof of college or trade school enrollment must be furnished with application.

Application Due: June 30

Donor: Friends and Family of Ken Davis

(4) Johnson County 4-H Don Smock Award

What: Award and $100

Who: Johnson County 4-H member in his or her last year of showing livestock in 4-H. Award is based on overall 4-H involvement and particularly, livestock involvement.

Application Due: June 30

Donor: Findley Auctioneers in memory of Don Smock

(5) Jack & Pat Bohlander Award

What: Award

Who: 7th – 10th grade 4-H member

Selection Criteria: The Jack Bohlander 4-H Citizenship Award is given to an outstanding 4-H member. A 4-H Club leader may nominate one 4-H'er who is in his/her 7th-10th year in 4-H. The award, named in honor of the Poor Jack Amusements founder, is to be given to a 4-H member who exemplifies Jack Bohlander's ethics. We are looking for traits such as hardworking, honest, helpful, involved in community, a leader, etc. The recipient will be awarded a plaque and a $100 savings bond at the Friday morning awards presentation during the county fair. A nameplate will be attached to a permanent plaque displayed in Scott Hall. Only one nomination accepted per club

Nominations Due: June 30th

(6) Johnson County Farm Bureau Scholarship

What: One scholarship

Who: Student whose parents are Farm Bureau members and students who have actively participated in 4-H and FFA. Graduating Senior in Johnson County, IN and who plan to enroll in full time accredited public or private college or university.

Additional items are required in addition to the Common Application. Please see Johnson County Community Foundation website to see additional requirements and to apply for this scholarship.

www.jccf.org

Scholarship applications are available in the Johnson County Extension Office and online at www.extension.purdue.edu/johnson

