

Intro to Grant Writing Basics

January 31, 2023
1PM ET

Extension

Who: Beginner and intermediate grant writers

What: This brief introduction to grant writing will review the proposal process and basic elements of a grant required for a successful proposal. This session will also provide information on future opportunities for more in-depth in-person grant writing workshops.

Registration required.

Register at <https://bit.ly/Grant23>

Purdue University is an equal access/equal opportunity institution.

If you require reasonable accommodations to attend this webinar, please contact Tonya Short at 812-882-3509 at least 10 business days prior to the event. Automated captioning will be available.