Welcome summer assistant

Please join us in welcoming back Jackie Wible as the Purdue Extension Sullivan County summer assistant!

She started on May 23 and jumped right into answering phones, picking up project posterboards in Clinton, planning Mini 4-H Activity Day, and creating a big window display for the Sullivan County Public Library at the Historical Museum on the square in Sullivan. That was just week one!

We are excited she is spending the summer using her talents and gaining work experience before she heads off to Iowa State University this fall as a junior studying Agriculture Communications.

Jackie's email is jwible@purdue.edu
